BAKED HAM

Place ham in brown paper bag with fat side up. Put a small amount of water in shallow baking pan. Place ham in pan on rack. Bake 30 minutes per pound at 350°. When ham is done remove from bag, skin off skin and score. Make syrup from juice of two oranges and one cup of brown sugar. Put ham back into oven and baste often with syrup until ham is golden brown. Usually takes about 30 minutes to brown ham.

Miss Nancy Lee Cox Weds Donald MacIntosh Hyatt, Jr.

Miss Nancy Lee Cox, daughter of Mrs. Walker E. Cox of Spartanburg, S. C. and the late Mr. Cox, became the bride of Donald MacIntosh Hyatt, Jr., at 5 p. m., Friday, March 26, in the Bethel Methodist Church at Spartanburg.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald MacIntosh Hyatt of Warwick, Virginia and a grandson of Mrs. W. A. Hyatt and the late Mr. Hyatt of Waynesville.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Friday, pastor of the church, and a program of music was presented by Miss Sylvia Scoggins, organist, and Mrs. Columns, soloist. Mrs. Columns sang "Because" and "O Promise Me" and as a benediction sang "The Lord's Prayer".

The altar was decorated with palms and baskets of white snapdragon, lilies, and gladioli.

Given in marriage by her brother, Walker D. Cox, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace and satin. The fitted bodice of lace was designed with Peter Pan collar and long sleeves and the full skirt extended into a chapel train. Her veil of illusion was attached to a tiara of pearls and fell the length of the train. She carried a white prayer book showered with valley lilies and topped with a white orchid.

Mrs. Osborne Holmes of Fair Forest, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a ballerina length gown of green tissue crepe over taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, bouffant skirt, and matching stole. She carried a muff arrangement of pink flowers.

Flower girls were Mary Jane Hyatt, cousin of the bridegroom, and Donna Holmes and Susan Cox, nieces of the bride. They wore identical dresses of pink organdy over taffeta and carried baskets of rose petals.

Mr. Hyatt was his son's best man and ushers were Dick Hussey and Charles Smith, classmates of the bridegroom at Wofford College.

After the ceremony the mother of the bride entertained with a reception in the parlors of the church. Assisting in receiving were Mrs. W. R. Hipps, grandmother of the bride, Mrs. W. A. Hyatt of Waynesville, grandmother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Lachlan Hyatt and Mrs. Toy Caldwell of Spartanburg, and Mrs. William Mundy of Greenville.

Mrs. Cox wore a navy blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Hyatt, mother of the bridegroom, wore champagne-colored silk tissue shantung and her corsage was of pink roses.

The bride's table was decorated with arrangements of white snapdragon and was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake.

Following the reception the couple left for a wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a navy suit with navy and white accessories and the orchid from her prayer book.

Mrs. Hyatt is a graduate of Spartan High School and Lander Business College, Spartanburg. She now holds a position as secretary with L. L. Hyatt Company, Spartanburg.

The bridegroom is a student at Wofford College and will continue his education. He is a veteran of four years' service in the U. S. Army, three of which were spent in Korea.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. W. A. Hyatt and her daughter, Miss Nancy Hyatt; Mr. and Mrs. David Hyatt,

Miss Lola Ford Is Bride Of Max Yarborough

Miss Lola Ford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Ford of Canton, became the bride of S/Sgt. Max Yarborough, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Yarborough of Crabtree, Saturday morning in the home of the bride's parents.

The Rev. R. M. Nix of Canton performed the double ring ceremony before an improvised altar of Oregon fern and baskets of white gladioli. Two seven-branched candelabra interspersed with fern were used on either side.

The bride wore a light blue wool suit with blue and white accessories and her corsage was a white purple-throated orchid. Her only ornament was an Alaskan diamond necklace, a gift of the bridegroom.

An informal reception was held immediately following the ceremony. Assisting in serving were: Mrs. Troy Ford and Mrs. Frank Ford, sisters-in-law of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a gray dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The mother of the bridegroom wore a navy blue dress with navy and white accessories, and her flowers were white carnations.

After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to Florida. Upon their return the bride will reside temporarily at the home of her parents, while S/Sgt. Yarborough will report for duty at Seattle, Washington.

Mrs. Yarborough is a graduate of Canton High School, and is now employed as a dental assistant to Dr. L. C. Rollins, Sr. S/Sgt. Yarborough attended the Crabtree schools.

Junaluska Club Names Delegates To Craft Camp

The Lake Junaluska Home Demonstration Club met Friday in the home of Mrs. Will Medford, Mrs. John McClure, vice-president, presided during the business session.

Mrs. Wallace Torgerson and Mrs. Hurst Burgin were named as delegates to the Handicraft Camp which will be held on June 1, 2 and 3rd at the Western North Carolina 4-H Club Camp. Mrs. Carey McCracken was named as alternate.

Plans were made for participation in the District Meeting which will be held on Wednesday, at the First Methodist Church. Mrs. McCracken will serve on the foods committee.

Clothing leader, Mrs. Annie McCracken, reported on the wise choice and selection of curtain material. Mrs. Carroll McCracken, leader, explained the nutritive value of milk and urged the members to consider milk as a food and not a beverage. Mrs. John McClure, health leader, discussed the importance of a strong family health program. Mrs. Torgerson, citizenship leader, reported on the recent Citizenship School held in Waynesville.

Miss Mary Cornwell gave the demonstration on "Appropriate Dress for all Occasions," after which the hostess served refreshments.
