

Mission Study Will Begin Monday Night

The first session of a mission study on Spanish-Speaking Americans in the United States of America will be held in the Waynesville Presbyterian Church, Monday, April 19, at 7:30 p.m. The theme will be "Spanish Speaking Americans, Who They Are and What is the Church Doing for Them."

Mrs. Edward Glavich and Mrs. Manson Medford will be in charge of devotions and the program will be presented by Mrs. Charles Edwards, Mrs. R. B. Waddell, Mrs. W. D. Ketter and Mrs. R. C. Ellis.

The study, which will be conducted in four sessions, will include the Methodist Churches in the Haywood County sub-district and the Episcopal and Presbyterian Churches of Waynesville.

The three remaining sessions will be held Thursday, April 22, and Monday and Thursday, April 26 and 29. All meetings will be in the Presbyterian Church at 7:30 p.m.

The study will be directed by Miss Ray Ballard, Miss Pearl Harris, and Mrs. George Craig.

All age groups are invited to attend the study.

Miriam Miller Celebrates 3rd Birthday

Miriam Miller celebrated her third birthday at a party given by her mother, Mrs. George (Nip) Miller, Tuesday afternoon in her home on Auburn Road.

Assisting with the entertainment were Miss Sandra Thompson, of Louisville, Ky., sister of Mrs. Miller, and Patience Ray.

Games were played on the lawn after which refreshments were served from a table on the porch. The birthday cake was used as a centerpiece and pastel-colored balloons and paper hats were used as decorations and favors. Baskets of candy marked the places.

A TOAST TO FUTURE HAPPINESS

THEIR ARMS ENTWINED, Suzan Ball and actor Dick Long drink to their future happiness after their wedding in Santa Barbara, Calif. Shortly afterward they began their honeymoon with a drive up the California coast. The actress, whose right leg was amputated last January, walked to the altar on an artificial limb. ### Katherine Plemmons Is Bride Of J. Paul Raby

Miss Georgia Katherine Plemmons, daughter of Mrs. George O. Plemmons and the late Mr. Plemmons of Asheville, formerly of Canton, became the bride of J. Paul Raby, son of the Rev. M. H. Raby and the late Mrs. Raby of Canton, at 8 p.m. Saturday in Trinity Methodist Church.

The Rev. J. H. Brendall, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony. Woodwardia and Oregon fern, interspersed with baskets of white gladioli and seven branched candelabra holding cathedral tapers banked the church altar.

Miss Viola Owenby, organist, and Mrs. Hobart Whitman, soloist, presented a program of wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, H. Jerome Brown of Asheville. She wore a ballerina length gown of white net and Chantilly lace over satin, fashioned with a formal bodice and lace jacket with long sleeves tapering to points over the wrists. The skirt was accented with a pointed flounce of Chantilly lace starting at the hip-line and extending the full length of the gown.

Her two-tiered fingertip veil of bridal illusion was attached to a coronet of seed pearls and she carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid outlined with Stephanotis and showered with streamers tied with lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Ben R. Phillips of Waynesville, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a ballerina length dress of daffodil yellow taffeta made with a nylon lace bodice and overskirt and matching lace mitts and floral headdress. She carried a cascade bouquet of mint green carnations and chrysanthemums.

Bridesmaids were Miss Gwendolyn Plemmons of Asheville, sister of the bride, Mrs. Hoyte Robertson of Sylva, Mrs. T. M. Rickman of Canton and Miss Betty Joyce Morgan of Clyde. They wore dresses modeled after that of the matron of honor in mint green and pastel pink with matching lace mitts and floral headdresses. They carried cascade bouquets of carnations and chrysanthemums. Ann Stone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David B. Stone of Waynesville, was flower girl.

Ben R. Phillips of Waynesville, brother-in-law of the bride, was best man and ushers were John T. ton, Ginger Trull, and George Miller, Jr.

Wells of Canton, Hoyte B. Robertson of Sylva, W. W. Cooper of Canton and Earl Haynes of Asheville, Dennis Rickman, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Rickman of Canton was ring bearer.

The mother of the bride wore a light blue nylon lace dress with matching hat and accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds. The bridegroom's stepmother wore a pink lace dress with matching hat and accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple greeted guests in the vestibule of the church. The couple left by car for a trip through the South. For traveling the bride wore a dusty pink suit and matching hat with black accessories and the orchid detached from her Bible.

Mrs. Raby is a graduate of Canton High School and is now employed by the Carolina division of Champion Paper and Fibre Company, Mr. Raby who is also a graduate of Canton High School is employed with the Champion Employee's Store.

The couple will reside at 24 Orchard St. in Canton.

Miss Louise Leach, student at Auburn College, Auburn, Ala., will spend the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Leach, at Lake Junaluska.

ALICE LOUISE WHISENHUNT, daughter of Mrs. Walter Whisenhunt of Waynesville and the late Mr. Whisenhunt, engaged to Lt. Harry Falls, Jr., son of Mrs. Ann B. Falls of Waynesville and the late Harry Falls. The wedding is planned for in the Waynesville Presbyterian Church.
