Western Carolina, Luther's interests broadened and he embarked on his newspaper career, which he is now planning to follow. After a year's work on the paper he was elected editor, and served in this capacity during his last year at the College.

Academically speaking, Luther has made an outstanding record. During the six quarters he has been at Western Carolina, he has made the honor roll five, and the Dean's List three. These grades entitled him to become a member of the national teacher college honor society, Alpha Phi Sigma.

Luther majored in Social Science and hopes to eventually write for the North Carolina Department of History and Archives. To help him realize this goal, he has obtained summer employment as a reporter on the Sylva Herald, in Sylva.
