Garden Club At Thickety Begins Year's Program

Mrs. Gladys Burrell and Mrs. David Burch were hostesses for the first meeting of the Oakwood Garden Club at the home of the former, Thursday evening. Twelve members were present, and three new members were welcomed.

Mrs. Earl Cabe, president, was in charge of the meeting. She read the by-laws and constitution, which had been drafted earlier in the week at a meeting of the executive committee. These were adopted, and the club's color of green and yellow was approved. The rose was selected as the club flower and the gold finch the bird.

The president announced the following committees: Program, Mrs. Lloyd Parham, Sr.; Lura and Wessie Wright; publicity, Mrs. Jim Harris; finance, Mrs. David Burch; telephone, Mrs. Frank Cabe; membership, Mrs. Charles Jacobs; scrapbook and year book, Mrs. Gladys Burrell; garden therapy, Mrs. George Wright; conservation, Mrs. John Whitted; beautification, Mrs. J. H. Clark; historian, Mrs. T. G. Murray; parliamentarian.

companied with the wheat bread, sometimes a cooked vegetable, and lamb, liver or fish. Fresh fruit makes up the dessert.

Mrs. Patrick Hurley, tall and beautiful wife of the ambassador to China, bent her head toward me. "Smell my hat," she said. Sniffing, I got the spicy perfume of fresh carnations!

She had been asked to make the hat she wore to a fashion show at which she was a guest. She bought the flowers and sewed them on, in a chou effect, on an old black capelet at the last minute. "And I won first prize," she laughed, showing me a small potted pink azalea plant she held in her hand.

Mrs. Ivy Baker Priest, treasurer of the United States making a purchase at a National Symphony Orchestra benefit sale, was overheard to ask: "May I borrow a pen to write a check? I haven't any money with me."

Bachelor Sam Ravburn (D-Tex.), House minority leader, heard that the National Federation of Republican Women plans to have a bust sculpted of Speaker Joe Martin (R-Mass.), also a bachelor, in celebration of Martin's 30 years' service in Congress. He commented: "That's fine. All old bachelors ought to be preserved. Of course, that could be in any form — sugar, vinegar or something else."

KIRK DOUGLAS AND HIS BRIDE

HE-MAN SCREEN STAR Kirk Douglas and his bride, Anne Buydens, 31, smile blissfully after their marriage in Las Vegas. Douglas, 37, and the blonde Parisienne met last year in the French capital while he was working on a film. It is the second marriage for both. (International)

Mrs. Harley Wright, Mrs. Earl Cabe and Mrs. Frank Cabe will be hostesses for the June meeting, at which time each member is asked to bring a suggested motto and collect.

Following the meeting tempting refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Dime Fines Box

WAUKON, Iowa (AP)—If you get a parking ticket in Waukon, don't rush to the police station to pay the fine. Patronize one of the city's "courtesy boxes."

The boxes, painted yellow, are attached to the parking meter posts. Parking tickets are placed in envelopes before they are stuck under the windshield wiper. The motorist places a dime in the envelope with the ticket and drops it into the box.

Pushbutton Theft

OMAHA (AP)—Police reported car strippers tried to steal the horn off a car, but couldn't budge it so they settled for the horn button. They also took the engine, radio, heater, gear shift assembly, transmission, muffler, battery, fender skirts, three hub caps and three tires.
