

Crabtree Baptist Church To Mark 140th Anniversary

By MRS. MILLARD FERGUSON
Community Reporter

On Sunday the Crabtree Baptist Church will observe its 140th anniversary with a varied program beginning with Sunday School at 9:45.

Rev. Pink McCracken of Lake Junaluska will review the history of the church and many of the older people who have been associated with the church through many years will add their bit of color.

Lunch will be served on the grounds picnic style at noon, and the afternoon will be filled with singing. The public is invited and choirs especially will be welcome.

The revival at the Crabtree Baptist Church came to a close last Sunday. Rev. Bill Hensley of Enka assisted Rev. Raby, the pastor.

The revival services at Fincher's Chapel will continue through Friday of this week with the Rev. F. R. Davis of Mooresville assisting his son, Rev. A. R. Davis, pastor.

The revival at Liberty Baptist Church is continuing with the Rev. Hornbuckle of Cherokee assisting the pastor, Rev. Dock Russell.

Last Wednesday women of the adult Sunday School classes of the Crabtree Methodist Church entertained the other classes and their visitors with a fellowship supper. Visitors were: Mr. and Mrs. Norman Freely, J. Handy Kirkpatrick and daughter, Mary Francis of Canton, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Francis of Clyde, Mr. and Mrs. Furman Noland of Clyde, Rt. 1, Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Fowler and daughter and Mrs. Fowler's mother, Rev. and Mrs. John Moore of Lake Junaluska, Dr. and Mrs. Fender, Jonathan Woody of Waynesville, Rev. and Mrs. C. O. Newell and Miss Sylvia of Creston.

Tommy Norris of Waynesville, a young minister who is a paraplegic, victim of a swimming accident several years ago, speaking from a wheelchair, brought a very inspirational message on "Our Belief, What It Is and How To Acquire It" to the Crabtree Methodist Sunday School last Sunday morning. He was accompanied by his mother, Mrs. T. C. Norris and his aide, Tommy Hightower.

We believe our farmers have the armyworm invasion under control, but not before much damage had been done to the alfalfa and tobacco.

Miss Ruth Ferguson, who is employed at the Eckard drug store of Asheville spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Ferguson.

Joe Ferguson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Ferguson and Frank son of Mr. and Mrs. Weaver Chambers, who have been spending a two-weeks furlough following their basic training have returned to Camp Gordon, Ga. for reassignment.

Miss Nancy Nolas attended the commencement exercises at Greensboro College, returning home her sister, Margaret, who was a student there.

Mrs. Charles Ferguson has registered and is attending summer school in Canton, where she expects to get the extra units needed to finish her high school work in three years instead of the usual four. At the close of the six-weeks course, she will receive her diploma from the Crabtree-Iron Duff school.

Mrs. Sallie Parks spent the weekend with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Buchanan of near Charlotte.

Bill Parks, Kenneth and Jerre accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hill of Ratcliffe Cove to Morganton on Sunday to visit Mrs. Hill's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Woodroe Buchanan.

Glenn Palmer has returned from a business trip to Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Kirkpatrick visited Mrs. Kirkpatrick's father, George W. Few, who is in the Allen-Bennett hospital in Greer, S. C. with a broken leg and crushed knee, caused by his horse falling.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Milne of Canton were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown.

Miss Frances Hombuckle of Cherokee was a weekend guest of Hilda Sanford at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sanford.

Mrs. C. B. McKeel of Charlotte and Mrs. Ruth Beaty of Waynesville were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Ferguson.

The bridge over Jonathan Creek which will give the Liberty Church community a much needed outlet on their western front is well under way and will mean more to the community than any one road project in the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Allen visited their daughters, Mrs. Spencer Fisher and Mrs. Veldie Barnes and their families in High Point over the weekend. While in High Point, they visited the Baptist orphanage at Thomasville.

Clyde Man In Training Down At Fort Jackson

Pvt. Floyd William Green, Clyde, has been assigned to Btry A 81st Airborne Field Artillery Battalion for basic training at Fort Jackson.

He will spend the next eight weeks here learning the fundamentals of being a soldier. This includes class room lectures in such subjects as Military Courtesy and First Aid, and combat procedures involving the use of the M-1 rifle, which he will learn to fire on various ranges. After eight weeks with the 101st Airborne Infantry Division, the trainee is given about 14 days leave. He may return to Fort Jackson for eight more weeks, or he may be assigned to one of the many Army schools. Basic training is required of each new man coming into the Army. Fort Jackson is one of the Army's largest training installations. Primarily an infantry training post, the Fort offers schooling in specialties associated with an infantry division as well as in combat tactics.
