Dan Watkins, Jr. was graduated from the University of North Carolina with a degree in Business Administration at exercises Monday night. He is a member of the Sigma Chi, social fraternity.

Mr. Watkins and his wife, the former Miss Betty Lee Phillips, of Durham are here now for a visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Watkins, Sr. until June 14, when the younger Watkins will enter the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Watkins, Sr. and daughter, Charlotte, attended the commencement program in Chapel Hill.

Mrs. Charles M. Bowles, and children of Charlotte are at their home at Lake Junaluska for the summer. Dr. Bowles, who is pastor of Dillworth Methodist Church, expects to join his family soon.

Church at Rocky Mount, Tuesday evening, June 8, at 8 o'clock.

The Rev. Mr. Russell, father of the bride, and Dr. Hardin, father of the bridegroom, conducted the ceremony.

The church was decorated with Australian tree fern and palms interspersed with branched candelabra and altar vases filled with lilies and white gladioli and delphinium.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Thomas B. Suiter, organist, and Howard A. Vaughn, vocalist, of High Point.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of Chantilly lace over satin. The fitted bodices was designed with scalloped neckline and yoke of illusion trimmed with seed pearls. Her bouffant skirt extended into a cathedral train and her veil of French illusion fell from a cap of imported Brussels lace trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of miniature white roses and stephanotis centered with white cymbidium orchids.

Miss Martha Russell was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a waltz-length dress of seafoam green crystalette with a matching headdress trimmed with pearls. She carried a cluster of miniature yellow roses.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. John Quarrell, cousin of the bride of Toccoa, Ga., Mrs. A. M. Utley, Jr. of High Point, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Vere Caviness of Lillington, and Miss Mary Ann Waldrop of Greenville, N. C. Their dresses were identical to that of the maid of honor and they carried mixed summer flowers in shades from cream to deep yellow.

Ed Hardin, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and ushers were John Russell, of Rock Mount, brother of the bride, A. M. Utley, Jr. of High Point, Jerry Cates of Richmond, Va., Perry Keziah of High Point, Gene Head of Birmingham, and Bill Grigg of Albemarle.

After the wedding the parents of the bride entertained with a reception in their home.

The mother of the bride wore a dress of beige lace with avocado green accessories. Her corsage was of green cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Hardin, mother of the bridegroom, wore a dress of periwinkle blue chiffon with white accessories and her corsage was of pink roses.

The couple left for a wedding "rip" to Virginia Beach and Williamsburg, Va. For traveling the bride wore a powder blue Irish linen suit piped in satin with a jeweled collar. She wore white accessories and an orchid corsage.

The bride is well-known here. She has spent the summer with her family at Lake Junaluska for a number of years and was Queen of Junaluska in 1952. She received a degree from Duke University Monday night.

Mr. Hardin has also spent the summer months with his family at Lake Junaluska for several years and lived in Waynesville during his boyhood while his father was pastor of the First Methodist Church here. He received a degree in Law from Duke University Monday night and will be associated with the law firm of White, Bradley, Arant, All and Rose, in Birmingham.

The couple will be at home at 2533 Montevallo Drive, Birmingham, after June 15.

MISS NANCY BAGBY, daughter of Mrs. John Coleman Bagby of River Forest, Ill., is engaged to Frank H. Rutland, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Rutland of Lake Junaluska. No date has been set for the wedding. Both Miss Bagby and Mr. Rutland are students at Northwestern University.
