Grace Church Ladies Plan August Bazaar

Final plans for the annual summer bazaar are being formulated by the ladies of Grace Episcopal Church. The bazaar will be held Thursday, August 5, this year, again in the Church Parish House.

Beginning at 10 a.m., it will feature the popular pet parade down Main Street. This is an event for children, who may enter any animal, and will end on the Church grounds where prizes will be given.

Members of the Women's Auxiliary have elected Mrs. Roy Campbell as general chairman of the bazaar. They have been holding weekly work shops for several months to complete handmade articles to be sold. The program will also include a variety of entertainment.

The following committee heads are assisting Mrs. Campbell who has also agreed to head the food table: Apron table—Mrs. J. F. Abel; Miscellaneous—Mrs. C. F. Kirkpatrick; Baby table—Mrs. M. C. Green; White Elephant table—Miss Robina Miller.

The Youth Group of Grace Church will conduct a snack bar and children's fish pond, and Robert Hill, superintendent of the Sunday School, will manage the Pet Parade.

Publicity is being handled by Mrs. Walter Baermann and Mrs. Templeton Lecky.
