Quilts, Rugs, Crafts, To Be Included In Flower Show

Plans for special exhibits to be shown at the annual flower show, sponsored by the Richland Garden Club, have been announced by Mrs. W. F. Swift, chairman.

The exhibits will include old and new quilts, coverlets, hand-woven, hooked, braided and crocheted rugs, knitted, woven and tufted counterpanes, and other hand-woven articles.

There will also be exhibits of handicrafts in wood, copper, aluminum, basketry, and caned and woven chair bottoms.

Serving on the committee with Mrs. Swift are Mrs. J. P. Dicus, Mrs. Clayton Walker and Mrs. J. R. Boyd.

The flower show will be held in the Waynesville High School auditorium Wednesday, August 18. Carrying out the theme, "Come To The Fair," the show will feature a midway with special exhibits and an "old-hoss" sale which will be reminiscent of the sale of unclaimed express by the railroads in the Gay Nineties.
