Carolyn Lee McElrath Is Bride Of Jack McPhail Kirby

Miss Carolyn Lee McElrath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Lee McElrath of Canton, became the bride of Jack McPhail Kirby, son of the Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Kirby of Gastonia, in a candlelight ceremony Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the Central Methodist Church of Canton.

The Rev. C. W. Kirby, father of the bridegroom, performed the double ring ceremony. Mrs. J. Frank Pate, organist, and Mrs. Robert Allen, vocalist, presented a program of wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of candlelight Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin, fashioned with a sculptured bodice of hand-clipped lace and fastened in the back with tiny self covered buttons. The long sleeves tapered to a point over the hands. The decollete neckline was bound in gathered Chantilly lace. Her fingertip veil of candlelight tulle fell from a lace and pearl trimmed Juliet cap.

The bride carried a cascade bouquet of gardenias centered with a white orchid.

Miss Blanche Selden of Weldon, college roommate of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a floor length gown of maize crystalite designed with a shawl collar and a full skirt of unpressed pleats. She wore a maize tulle cloche-type hat and carried a cascade bouquet of yellow and lavender asters.

Mrs. John R. Stephens of Clyde, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Nanevlee Duckworth of Canton, Miss Mary Lou Starke of Rockwell Rapids, and Miss Oweles of Wadesboro. They wore gowns of Nile green crystalite and hats identical in design to that of the maid of honor. They carried cascade bouquets of yellow and peach asters.

Robert Kirby of Gastonia, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Bill McElrath of Canton, brother of the bride, John Stephens of Clyde, J. C. McPhail of Winston-Salem, uncle of the bridegroom, and J. C. McPhail, Jr. of Winston-Salem.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained with a reception at Glenelle's on Pisgah Drive. Those assisting were Mrs. Carl Powell, Mrs. Robert Phillips, Mrs. Hall B. Whitworth, Mrs. Don Ralldolph, Mrs. Thomas James, Mrs. Eleanor Jackcocks, Mrs. Neil Vetoie, Miss Elizabeth Ferguson, Miss Betty Morgan, and Miss Pauline Slaughter. Mrs. F. R. Mease and Miss Mary Ann Dudley presented piano selections during the reception.

After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to Florida. For traveling the bride wore a Parisian style dress of gray and white imported silk, a basque jacket of gray linen, and a red feather hat with red accessories. She wore the white orchid from her bouquet.

Mrs. Kirby was graduated in May from Greensboro College where she received a B.A. degree in Elementary Education. She plans to teach in the Winston-Salem

Lovely in Linen

By VERA WINSTON

PERFECT for an important date or an informal dance is this charming dress, the fabric fine linen, the color beige or pastel shades. Delectable detailing marks the frock which is sleeveless and has a simple, rounded neckline. It is tucked from neck to hem, the tucks widening in their descent. Bands of heavy cotton lace, dyed to tone, are inserted in curved lines on the bodice and hip yoke for a dressy touch.

The Hornets Are Entertained By Their Sponsor

The Hornets, Pony League pennant winners, and their managers were entertained at a swimming party and picnic supper given Friday afternoon by their sponsor, H. P. McCarroll of Garrett's Furniture Co.

The boys were taken for a swim at Barber's Orchard after which the picnic was held at The Rock on the Fairview Road. Parents of the players were also guests at the picnic.

The pennant winners were David Russell, Bobby Ballance, Charles Robinson, Ronny James, Ralph Arrington, Sammy Frady, Wayne Pruett, Harry Valentine, Bill Hollingsworth, Jesse Hollingsworth, Bill Sisk, Jack Atkins, and Van Green.

Glenn Wyatt and Noble Arrington were managers of the team.

Beta Sigma Phi Will Meet For Picnic Supper

Mrs. John Nesbitt and Mrs. Ray Ellis will be hostesses at a picnic supper for members of the Alpha Theta chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi sorority Thursday, August 12, at 7 p.m.

The picnic will be held at the home of Mrs. Nesbitt on Hillside Terrace.

Skyland Club Will Meet Thursday, 12th

The Skyland Garden Club will meet Thursday, August 12, at 12:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Hubert Evans with Mrs. Hendon Winter as co-hostess.

Mrs. Joe Cathey of the Mountain View Garden Club will be the guest speaker.

Each member is asked to bring flowers and a container to make arrangements for judging.
