Hurt? Naw... (Photo by Harry Goodwin, Washington Post) GRUNT 'N BARE IT—This Fairfax, Va., lad's sister came down with a form of jaundice, so he and 29 classmates got shots of gamma globulin to prevent an outbreak of the disease. Gamma globulin is one of several blood components furnished by the Red Cross thru Public Health Departments to victims of injury and disease. The people of the Eastern Samoas are classed as the purest, racially, of all the Polynesian peoples, says the National Geographic Society. Estimates of the number of Americans who are bothered by hay fever vary from three to five millions.
