Miss Frances Wynelle Ford, James Kuykendall Are Wed

Miss Frances Wynelle Ford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ford of Enka, became the bride of James Kuykendall, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James Kuykendall, Sr. of Hazelwood, in the Oak Park Presbyterian Church at Asheville, Sunday, September 12, at 3 p.m.

A former pastor of the bride at Sand Hill Methodist Church performed the double ring ceremony and traditional music was presented by Mrs. R. Carmichael of Asheville, organist, and Charles Robinson of Enka, soloist.

The altar was decorated with fern and baskets of white gladioli flanked by seven branched candelabra.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of white embroidered taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, scalloped neckline and short sleeves. She wore long gloves and a finger-ring veil of illusion attached to a Juliet cap embroidered with seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book with a purple orchid and white satin streamers.

Miss Leah Sutton of Sylva was maid of honor. Her dress was of blue taffeta designed with a full ballerina-length skirt and she carried a bouquet of mixed flowers.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Keith Donahoe of Luttrell, Tenn., and Miss Rachael Pressley of Asheville. They wore ballerina length dresses and carried bouquets of mixed flowers. Mrs. Donahoe wore pink and Miss Pressley wore blue.

Bobby Kuykendall served as best man for his brother and ushers were Bob Jay of Cullowhee and Carroll Swanger and Terry Swanger of Hazelwood, classmates of the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony the parents of the bride entertained with a reception in their home on Sardis Road, near Asheville. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and held a three-tiered wedding cake flanked with white tapers.

Mrs. Ford, mother of the bride wore a street-length dress of turquoise blue crepe with a matching hat and a purple orchid corsage. The mother of the bridegroom wore a navy linen suit with navy and white accessories and her corsage was also a purple orchid.

Assisting in serving were Mrs.

MRS. BENJAMIN L. WHITE was married Wednesday, September 1 in Raleigh. She is the former Miss Kathryn Sue Raye, daughter of James P. Raye of Waynesville and Mrs. Rosa B. Raye of Asheville. (Photo by Waller Studio).

Miss Kathryn Sue Raye Is Bride Of B. L. White

The marriage of Miss Kathryn Sue Raye and Benjamin L. White, both of Raleigh, was solemnized Wednesday, September 1, at 6 p.m. in the chapel of the Hayes Barton Baptist Church in Raleigh.

The bride is the daughter of James P. Raye of Waynesville and Mrs. Rosa B. Raye of Asheville. The bridegroom is the son of Lenoir White of Glen Alpine and the late Mrs. White.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Jesse E. Hasty, cousin of the bridegroom, and music was presented by Mrs. Christine McCloud, organist.

The couple entered together. The bride wore a princess style street length dress of white cotton lace over pale pink taffeta. She carried a bouquet of white tube roses centered with a white purple-throated orchid.

Ushers were Grover Henson of Rocky Mount and Joseph White, brother of the bridegroom of Glen Alpine.

The bride's mother wore a dress of pale pink linen with blue accessories. Her corsage was of pink rose buds.

Following the ceremony a reception was given by Miss Loretta Ledbetter and Miss Ollie Lou Profit in their home on Oberlin Road. Assisting were Mrs. W. D. Elliott of Durham and Mrs. Alston J. Hix of Rock Hill, S. C., aunt of the bride, Miss Norma Sherrer of Reidsville, and Miss Hilda Raye of Asheville, sister of the bride.

The bride is a graduate of Lee Edwards High School, Asheville and has been employed with General Motors Corp. in Raleigh.

Mr. White attended Glen Alpine High School and N. C. State College and was graduated from Wake Forest College. He served three years in the armed forces and is now employed as field representative with General Motors Corp. in Raleigh.

Following a Southern wedding trip the couple will reside at 2005 Clark Avenue, Raleigh. For traveling the bride wore a beige ensemble with brown accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.
