er Cites Veather Danger lack of rainfall has usually dry" conditreat Smoky Moun-Park this year, and park are warned lighted cigarettes, ther fire-producing area, District Rangrell said this week. season doesn't til Oct. 16," said the lack of rainfall area unusually dry

f year.

HOME ON LEAVE from the U.S. Navy for 10 days is Charles Curd that a request to tis Parris, son of Mr. and Mrs. fighters has been George Parris of Waynesville, A he regional office 1954 graduate of Waynesville Va. Some fire towers High School, he is currently staperation and others tioned at San Diego, Calif, start soon, he con-set fire that had The first regular U. S. passenger lege luncheon at the same time in ing for nearly a urned itself out Sat- services using diesel locomotives the S and W Cafeteria. aid, "The fire must were set up in 1934, bout Aug. 22, since last time we had a large, but such fires are extremely ering an area of less difficult to control," Morrell stated.

Conference of the Methodist On Thursday, Sept. 23, meetings Church opens Wednesday, Sept. 22, of the conference will be as folin Central Methodist Church, Asheville, Final conference meetlows:

ings will be held Sunday, Sept. 26. At 9 a.m., devotions and ser-Pre-conference meetings will be mon by Dr. James T. Cleland, held on Tuesday, Sept. 21, includ. Duke Divinity School, Durham; ing boards, committees and com- 9:30 a.m., conference resumes; remissions meetings, at 2:30 p.m. A ports will be given beginning at 10 brotherhood dinner in the S and a.m.; at 11:30 a.m. Dr. Pendleton W Cafeleria is set for 5:30 p.m., Gaines, president of Wofford Coland at 7:30 p.m. the conference lege, Spartanburg, S, C., will historical society will meet for an speak; rural fellowship luncheon, address on Francis Asbury. First Presbyterian Church; 3 p.m., tion will begin at 2 p.m.

general worship, Dr. Cleland to Conference sessions open at 10 preach on "Seven Deadly Virtues": a.m. Wednesday, Sept. 22, with a memorial service conducted by 5:30 p.m., Duke Church; 7:30 5:30 p.m., Duke University dinner, Bishop Costen J, Harrell of Charlotte, Dr. Mark Depp of Winstonp.m., Bishop John Branscomb of Jacksonville, Fla., will preach. Salem will preach. A communion Friday, Sept. 24, meetings will service is planned for 11 a.m. The follow this schedule; Brevard College luncheon will be held at 12:30 p.m. at Trinity Epis-by Dr. Cleland; 9:30 a.m., conference resumes; at 10:30 a.m., Dr. C. R. Hooten of Washington, D. C., will speak under auspices of Board The annual conference organizaof Temperance; 11:30 a.m., Frank Roberson of Asheville, Edwin L.

The Emory University dinner Jones of Charlotte and G. L. Goodson of Boger City to participate in will begin at 5:30 p.m. in the S panel discussion of lay activities; 12:45 p.m., laymen's luncheon, George Vanderbilt Hotel; 3 p.m. Dr. Cleland to preach; 5:30 p.m., High Point College dinner, S and

W Cafeteria; 7:30 p.m., ordination of deacons and address by M. T. Lambeth, superintendent of Children's Home, Winston-Salem. Sept. 25 meetings include:

At 9 a.m., reception of class; 9:30 a.m., recognition of supply pastors; 10 a.m., world service and finance board reports; 10:30 a.m., conference business session; 1 p.m., minister's wives, luncheon at Grove Park Inn; 2:30 p.m., conference business meeting; 3:30 to 5 p.m., tea for women, home of Mrs. Joel Wright, 31 Busbee Rd.; 5:30 p.m., Asbury College dinner, S and W Cafeteria; 7:30 p.m., youth night, City Auditorium.

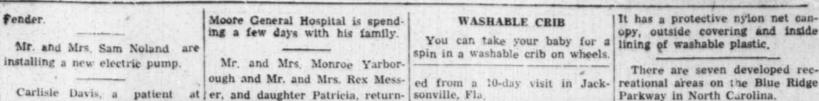

On Sunday, Sept. 26, the Rev. T. A. Groce of Asheville will preside at a love feast at 9:30 a.m. Bishop Harrell will preach at the 11 a.m. service. The final conference business session and ministerial appointments are to begin at 3 p.m.

All meetings not otherwise indicated are to be at Central Church.

Dry Weather Is Hurting Crops In Lower Crabtree

By MRS. MILLARD FERGUSON Community Reporter

The excessive dry weather is cutting fall pastures in our area seriously, and ripening the crops almost too fast to be taken care of by our farmers.

aptember of

An early harvest has enabled us to restock your Friendly DIXIE-HOME Super Markets with an abundance of "Famous Brands," all at our popular Low, Low Prices. Thrifty housewives everywhere will rejoice at this opportunity to dress up their pantry with their favorite brands at a real saving. You can afford to pick and choose at your Friendly Dixio "ome 5 still save! Because . . . you get the "BEST FOR LESS" at no extra cost.

ar Elkmont, smoul- Site of the fire was about a mile and W Cafeteria. At 7:30 p.m. Dr. 22 inches beneath and a half from the nearest water Robert E. Goodrich, Jr., of Dallas, urface, "It wasn't source, he added, Tex., will preach in Central T MAYONNAISE Pt. 33c PILLSBURYS O COFFEE Lb 99c PIE CRUST MIX 8-oz Jar 29c WHIZ 2 Pkgs 25c Armour's MPBELLS CHOPPED HAM 12-oz Can 49c ATO SOUP Potted Meat 234-oz Cans 15c <sup>2 0z.</sup> 23c Dash Dog Food 2 16-oz cans 27c White House No. 303 Can Lb APPLE SAUCE 2/35°

Box

23°

Walkers Austex

REMIUM

THE WAYNESVILLE MOUNTAINEER

PAGE THREE (Second Section)

It has a protective nylon net canopy, outside covering and inside reational areas on the Blue Ridge Parkway in North Carolina.

The weekly singing school continues each Saturday night at the Crabtree Baptist church, with good attendance. The school is under the leadership of Frank Kirk-land of Balsam.

The revival at Ball Creek Bap tist church continues this week with Rev. Riley Surret of Sandy Mush doing the preaching.

The WSCS of the Crabtree Methodist church met on Monday night at the home of Mrs. John Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Hugh Noland, president, presided and Mrs. Joe Smart had the program, including the devotional.

The family of the late Allen and Caroline Rhea Noland held their first reunion on Sunday, Sept. 12 at the Crabtree Baptist church. Many friends and relatives attended. Hereafter, this will be an annual affair, on the second Sunday in September.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Holt arrived home last Saturday from Chicago, where they attended a Bible Conference. Enroute home they visited friends in Milwaukee and in Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Head who were called here by the death of Mr. Head's father, the late Henry Head of Hazelwood, have been visiting Mrs. Head's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Weaver Haney, and are leaving this week for their home in Lake Stephen, Wash.

Mrs. Burton McCroba who has been in Lima, Ohio, for several weeks, returned last week and is with her daughter, Mrs. John Kirkpatrick and Mr. Kirkpatrick.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Moody were hosts on Saturday evening to a picnic supper on the Riverside community center lawn, as a courtesy to their brother-in-law Lawrence Davis of Waynesville, who left on Monday for training in the armed forces.

Mrs. Ballard Webb and Mrs. Woodrow Plemmons entertained with a household shower at the home of Mrs. Webb, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Webb, who will soon be leaving to reside in Cullowhee.

Mr. and Mrs. Carrol Glance and family spent Sunday in Marlon visiting Mr. Glance's mother, Mrs.