Job's Struggle to Understand Life ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—Job 1-2; 19-23.

There was a man in the land of Uz named Job. He feared God and avoided evil. He had seven sons and three daughters, great riches in flocks and herds, a great household and was the greatest man in the east.

Satan contended that Job worshiped because he was wealthy, so God allowed the evil one to destroy all Job's wealth and even his sons and daughters. When Job was told of this disaster, he fell to the ground and worshiped.

Next Satan afflicted Job with agonizing diseases, and his wife said, "Dost thou still retain thine integrity? curse God, and die." Job answered her, "Shall we receive good at the hand of God and shall we not receive evil?"

Three friends came to comfort Job and one said he must be evil and was being punished. Job said: "He knoweth the way I take; when He hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold." MEMORY VERSE—Jeremiah 29:13.

The Golden Text

Happy days of Job. "Ye shall seek Me, and find Me, when ye shall search for Me with all your heart."—Jeremiah 29:13.

THE TRUTH comes home... to the Family

Your newspaper brings you the facts that safeguard your freedom of choice

As an American, you are free to think, choose and act for yourself. But, unless you so had the right to know the truth, these precious freedoms would immediately come meaningless and soon disappear. The right to know is fundamental to democracy. It is guaranteed to you by the First Article of the Bill of Rights, which establishes free press. It is predicated upon the faith of the founders in the wisdom of the people... provided they have the facts. To bring the truth right into your family circle is the purpose of your newspaper. It tells you what is going on across the world... across the street! Without fear or favor, it gives you authentic facts which you can have if you are to think, choose and act in the best interests of your family, your community, your country. Freedom of the press is primarily the freedom of all the people to know all the facts. It is the basic freedom upon which all other freedoms depend... without which, none could long endure.

In its advertising as well as its news columns, your newspaper helps you to exercise your American freedom of choice wisely and well. Every advertisement printed is a bid for your favor... presents the facts you need in order to decide what to buy and from whom... all with a view of making every dollar you spend contribute the greatest measure of satisfaction to your family and yourself.
