

Mae West Bride Of R. Bagley

Mae West, daughter of Mrs. S. A. West of Canton, became the bride of Lt. R. Bagley of the United States Air Force, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Bagley of Suwanee, Saturday, October 2 at 2 in the Spring Hill Baptist Church. A double ring ceremony was held by the Rev. Thomas Erskine. A program of traditional wedding music was presented by Miss Martha Jean Kelly, Miss Sue Kelly, vocal soloist of Canton. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white tulle and tulle. The bodice was of satin and designed with a sweetheart neckline and puffed sleeves. The full skirt was of tulle and trimmed with a coil of lace. The bride carried a white orchid and a white covered Bible topped with a white orchid and showered the guests with white confetti. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls. The bridegroom, Harry Stroupe of Candler, wore a tuxedo and was the matron of honor. Her sister's matron of honor wore a gown of blue tulle and tulle, fashioned with a white, sweetheart neckline and a bouffant skirt. Her bouquet was of white flowers centered with white ribbons.

McKimmon Club Has Meeting At Glenelle's

The McKimmon Home Demonstration Club met last week at Glenelle's Tea Room in Canton with Mrs. W. M. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. W. J. Muse, Mrs. E. M. Lide and Mrs. Glenn Williams as hostesses. Mrs. Logan White presided. Guests were Mrs. Venson Harkins from Texas, Mrs. Carl Medford of Lake Junaluska, Miss Mary Frances Kirkpatrick and Mrs. James Hyatt from the Canton Homemakers. Mrs. J. T. Powell was welcomed as a new member. Mrs. Moody Hyatt, foods and nutrition leader, discussed buying meat and preparation of the less expensive cuts for nutritious dishes. Mrs. W. J. Muse, garden leader, presented timely tips for the fall garden. Mrs. W. C. Moody, citizenship leader, was recognized as one of the county's delegates to attend the United Nations Tour. The demonstration on "Simple Entertaining" was presented by Miss Mary Cornwall, home agent.

Moose To Resume Friday Socials

The Loyal Order of Moose announces that it has resumed its Friday night socials which had been discontinued because of local football games. Beginning Friday, Oct. 8, at 7:30 p.m. a new series of activities will be held, according to John W. Marcus, past Governor. No admission is charged to the events, which are open to the public. The entire family is invited and is promised an evening of good clean entertainment. Refreshments will be served. Mr. Marcus also announced that the Ladies' Auxiliary is still in the process of forming and that anyone who joins in the near future will be on the charter list. The month of October has been declared an open house period for the Moose in this area. Members may entertain guests in any part of the Lodge premises. The Lodge meets in clubrooms in the former telephone offices over Gunn's Corner.

MR. AND MRS. GORDON COLEMAN WATTS of Canton announce the engagement of their daughter, Jimmie Isabel, to Robert Boyd Patterson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Patterson of Littleton, North Carolina. The wedding is planned for November.

Barberville Baptist Circle Will Meet

The Business Women's Circle of the Barberville Baptist Church will meet Monday night, at 7:30 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Raymond Blanton. Mrs. J. T. Underwood will preside and Mrs. Nola Hightower, program chairman, will present the program.

Mrs. S. H. Bushnell is spending this week with her son, Sam Bushnell, Jr., and his children in Asheville, while Mrs. Bushnell, Jr. is in Hendersonville with her mother, Mrs. Wilshire Griffith, who is critically ill.

Cut luncheon meat into cubes and alternate on skewers with green pepper, mushrooms and onion. Broil and serve with a barbecue sauce.
