QUICKIE DESSERT — Boston cream pie made from ready-baked cake, vanilla pudding and chocolate.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

TRADITIONAL BOSTON CREAM PIE can be made quickly these days with the help of bought cake, a package of one of the new instant puddings, and semi-sweet chocolate. While the dessert may not have all the nuances of flavor that come from doing all the work yourself, it is mighty good and will save you lots of time and energy when you are having company and time is short.

I find it handy to have a list of quick-to-make desserts for short-order entertaining; if you try this recipe and enjoy it, you might like to set up such a file.

QUICK BOSTON CREAM PIE

Ingredients: 1 1/2 cups cold light cream, 1 package vanilla instant pudding, 1 baked 8-inch cake layer, 1/2 of a 6-ounce package of semi-sweet chocolate pieces, 1 1/2 tablespoons butter or margarine.

Method: Pour cream into mixing bowl. Add pudding mix and beat with rotary beater 1 minute, or until well mixed. Let stand until set—about 5 minutes. Split cake crosswise into two layers. Stir filling and spread between layers.
To make frosting, place chocolate over hot (not boiling) water and stir occasionally until partly melted. Remove from heat; add butter and stir until smooth.
Spread on top of cake. Chill 1 hour before serving.

Two new cookbooks have lots of help to offer for company meals.
Both of them have fine menus and recipes. Both indicate a new trend: the authors tell how to prepare the menus step by step.
Some cooks will want to follow these steps; some won't.

The author of "Time to Entertain" (Little, Brown) is Charlotte Turgeon whose study of cookery in Paris enables her to make outstanding contributions to our own culinary scene. Fortunately Mrs.
Turgeon is well aware of the kind of entertaining that goes on in cities and small towns in this country, so her suggestions are practical.
Her menus include dinners for old friends and party dinners for four and six; luncheon and breakfast menus; weekend entertaining suggestions; menus for receptions and teas. Other good features are shopping lists and alternate recipe suggestions so that menus may be juggled to suit your own particular needs and preferences.

"Dinners that Wait" by Betty Wason (Doubleday) features main dishes that are delay-proof. Mrs.
Wason, like Mrs. Turgeon, has eaten and cooked in Europe and her book pleasantly reflects her background. She knows good food and how to write about it, and you will be sure to enjoy her comments with her step-by-step directions.
One of her recipes we should particularly like to recommend because it is similar to one of our own pet ideas. It is for Cocktail Pastries made from a rich cream cheese dough and filled with meat, fish, vegetables or cheese. Wonderful for parties!

DIFFERENT SALAD

Here's a good variation on Waldorf salad. Instead of using apples, dice peeled fresh pears and mix with celery, walnuts and mayonnaise. Serve on salad greens and sprinkle with a little paprika.

don't DO that!

OBSTACLE COURSE ...
Keep the flower centerpiece on the dinner table low, so that your guests can see over it without strained necks.

Different Kind of Condon

CHARLESTON, S. C. (AP) — Irish-descended William F. Condon, president of a prosperous Charleston department store, reportedly visiting a West Cork, Ireland, bar room looking for relatives.

Bar keep Willie Condon first gave him the cold shoulder because he thought this was another poor relation looking for a handout.
Condon said.
"Another Condon!" he quoted Willie as exclaiming. "They're coming from England, Scotland and even France because they've heard I've inherited a lot of money."

When Willie found he had adequate means of his own, Condon said, refreshments were on the house.
The best and cheapest source of Vitamin A is green grass.
