ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—Proverbs 4: 6:20-7:27; 17:1; 19:13-14; 31:10-31.

"My son, keep thy father's commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother. When thou goest, it shall lead thee; when thou sleepest, it shall keep thee; and when thou awakest, it shall talk to thee."—Proverbs 6:20, 22.

"A foolish son is the calamity of his father; and the contentions of a wife are a continual dropping. Houses and riches are the inheritance of fathers; and a prudent wife is from the Lord."—Proverbs 19:13-14.

"Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies. The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her. She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life."—Proverbs 31:10, 12.

"Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her. Favor is deceitful and beauty is vain but a woman who feareth the Lord, she shall be praised."—Proverbs 31:28, 30.

Bible Words for Today

It has not been easy for me to make up my mind to accept the challenge to cite a favorite Bible verse and tell why. Versification of scripture, I verily believe, was a device of the Devil to obscure the larger truth.
However, there is undoubtedly great good to be done by encouraging readers to take even homeopathic doses of Holy Writ. It may be good for what ails us all.
Here is an idea whose time has come, in the words of Jesus: "Holy Father, keep them in Thy name which Thou hast given Me, that they may be one, even as we are one." (John 17: 11 RSV)
This plea to God by his Son is worthy, yes, compelling of thought, because:
1. It issued from the heart of the True Head of the church.
2. It points up the basic condition on which that church may hope to succeed in its mission.
3. It reveals Jesus' resource for power—prayer.
4. It challenges current denominationalism, for this eddying sectarianism diverts power from the central current of Christian effort.
5. The implementation of this single petition of our Lord would subdue a warring world and bring the dawn of peace.

THIS HAZEL REALLY PACKED A WALLOP

Not since we went into business back in 1908 has our system suffered such wreckage. From deep into South Carolina, across the eastern half of North Carolina to the Virginia line, "Hazel" left a mass of destruction. No part of the area escaped. The damage you see about you has been as bad, or even worse, in approximately three-fourths of the 30,000 square miles of our service area.

Thanks A Million!

Through it all you have been wonderful. We thank you for your patient understanding. All of our own line crews, plus crews borrowed from our neighbors to the west in North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia have worked around-the-clock since the hurricane struck.
Although we are doing everything we can, it will be several days yet before service to everybody has been restored. Be assured that we will continue to do everything we can to make your period of inconvenience as brief as possible.
