

Clyde High Hi-Lights

By VIOLET LINDSEY

The senior class gave a special program in chapel last Friday. The program was in observance of National Bible Week and United Nations Week.

Eula Jo Stamey gave some facts about the United Nations and a special prayer written by one of the members of the U.N. Sue Lindsey gave the pledge to the high school in the pledge to the American flag.

Phyllis Mease was chosen by the senior class to be our contestant in the Halloween Queen contest. Joyce Scott is the junior contestant and the sophomores selected Hilda Clontz as their queen.

The freshmen are sponsoring Geraldine Hill in the contest.

The Halloween Carnival will be in the old gym Friday night, October 29.

The Clyde PTA met Thursday afternoon, October 21.

Miss Freeman had charge of the devotional. Mrs. Alice Haynes' sixth graders, under the direction of Miss Hannah, sang two songs.

Jo Anna McCracken, Violet Lindsey, John Medford, and Judy Pressley conducted a panel discus-

MAYOR HELD IN GAMBLING CLEANUP

MAYOR THOMAS W. FLATLEY (right), of Erie, Pa., arrested with two police officials in connection with a gambling cleanup, listens as Ray Moss (left) reads a warrant charging the city's head with accepting a bribe. Flatley admitted in a signed statement he had received $450 to $550 a month for 16 months in payments originating from persons he "suspected" were running a numbers racket. He denied taking money from any "racketeers." Forty arrests were made. (International) sion on community health.

The annual staff met at the home of Joan Banks Tuesday night. We really worked hard and we hope we can use all the ideas we learned.

The photographer, Mr. Teague, is going to take our group and activity pictures Thursday.

The honor roll for the first six-weeks has just been released by Mr. Livingston.

Change For Patient

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — An ambulance skidded to a stop with a flat tire.

A sheriff's car sued the interne to his patient. The interne, Dr. Charles Miller, found the patient needed immediate hospitalization and phoned for another ambulance.

But before it arrived, farmer David Lydy, 55, walked up and said he had changed the ambulance tire. And Dr. Miller rushed off with his patient.
