Bernard's Warehouses - 1 - 2 & 3 Greeneville, Tenn.

Nos. 2 & 3 will sell the week of the openning. Both of these floors will likely sell twice before the adjournment of sales for the holidays — Unless there is seasonable weather for classification all floors may sell around in a week or less time,

The added floor space of the Greeneville market will accommodate all deliveries - Nothing gained by booking space in

The Greeneville average, prior to the middle of January, above the outlying smaller markets, due however, to its conditioning facilities affording more competition on all grades, later receipts of Re-sales and that of the tail end of the crop, the former average is reduced.

Deliyeries from Cocke County and North Carolina always tops the general average 5c to 8c.

The Sales Committee meets in Lexington, Ky., Nov. 8th, at which time they will name the date of opening, sales hours and number of sale days before Christmas.

Further information will eb given in a later issue of this
