Shock For Drivers LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Michigan State Police are trying shock to reduce the state's highway death toll. An 18-page booklet of pictures showing ways in which motorists can die is being given to traffic offenders. The introduction is gruesome enough. It reads, in part: "The pictures in this booklet aren't pretty. They're gruesome—they're horrible—but they are true. No one likes to look at bones sticking through flesh from compound fractures or faces smashed beyond recognition by windshields or heads and arms severed from the body—but that's what happened 105 times a day last year."

Pardon Granted WARMINGSTER, Va. (AP) — "Lady" is never a spangled but she has a long Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Smith switched on the light Lady dodging a truck head on the bedroom in ville killed the smaller.
