

GO TO CHURCH SOMEWHERE EVERY SUNDAY

The Golden Text

The Splendor of Self-Control

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—Proverbs 14; 15:1-5; 16; 20; 23:29-35; 25.

"He that is slow to wrath is of great understanding; but he that is hasty of spirit exalteth folly," wrote King Solomon—Proverbs 14:29.

He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city."—Proverbs 16:32.

"Look not upon the wine when it is red. . . . At the last it biteth like a serpent and stingeth like an adder."—Proverbs 23:31, 32.

"He that hath no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down."—Proverbs 25:28. MEMORY VERSE—Proverbs 16:32.

David showing Saul that he had spared his life. "He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty, and he ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city."—Proverbs 16:32.

WHO killed Cock Robin?

PASSENGER BUSINESS on some of our local trains is as dead as fabled "Cock Robin". Who killed it? No one, intentionally. It died a natural death because more and more people who once needed and used these local trains switched to travel by private automobile or highway bus.

As long ago as 1939 new diesel-powered air-conditioned trains were put in local service on various parts of the railway. Their runs exceeded 2,000 miles daily. But local travel continued to decline, and some "locals" were carrying fewer passengers than train and engine crew members.

Passengers carried by the Southern have dropped from 8,800,000 in 1946 to 2,472,000 last year—a 72% decrease. And we were more than $5 million in the red on our local passenger train operations last year.

We don't want to get out of the passenger business. We want more passengers. But we do feel that it is in your interest as well as ours to eliminate losses on operations of any kind that have outlived their usefulness. We would like to spend this money on constantly improving those services that are needed and are used.
