

Clyde High Hi-Lights

By VIOLET LINDSEY

The senior class enjoyed a trip through the Champion Paper and Fibre Co. last Friday. Everyone is still commenting on the interesting classes we attended and the movies that were shown to us.

Eleven of our class were unable to tour the plant because they had to leave immediately after lunch to play ball at Cherokee.

It seems everyone is so proud of their mechanical pencil, which Champion gave us, that they are keeping them at home. We aren't going to take a chance on losing them.

Miss Greene was our faculty sponsor for the trip.

The senior class is very much interested in the Clyde Post Office these days. The reason—our class rings are supposedly on the way.

The photographer was here Wednesday and took a number of pictures to be used in the annual.

An annual staff meeting was held Tuesday night at Bill Caldwell's home. They planned the pictures that were taken Wednesday.

Annual deposits must be paid by December 1 to Violet Lindsey, circulation manager.

The Journalism Club gave a chapel program Monday on American Education Week. Those taking part on the program were Jo Anna McCracken, Sue Limbo, Mary Sue Glance, and Violet Lindsey.

We had a moment of silent meditation to pay respect to our late Governor William B. Umstead.

Three senior girls have recently married. The couples are Sue Lindsey and George Limbo, Bonnie Mann and Jon Morgan, Phyllis Mense and Sid Haynes. However, the girls plan to finish their senior year.

Riverside Church Finishes New Cemetery Project And Expansion Of Building

By MRS. J. EDGAR BURNETTE

The Riverside Baptist has completed the survey, and mapping of the new nearby cemetery. Lots are now being offered for sale by the committee.

Several acres of land were purchased some time ago from Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Long for the new cemetery. Decision to build a new cemetery resulted from the fact that most of the lots at Bethel are sold.

The lots are marked off, and plotted on the maps which are available.

The church has completed a building project, which included addition of nine classrooms, enlarging of the auditorium and provision of more rest rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Huskey, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Huskey, went to Enoree, S. C., Sunday to visit the former's sister and husband. Mr. and Mrs. Joe McGaha, Mr. McGaha suffered a recent heart attack.

Mrs. Jack Edwards was hostess to a group of friends and relatives on Tuesday evening when a household shower honoring Mr. and Mrs. Harold Messer was given. The couple are from Morning Star, and were recently married.

The couple received many lovely and useful gifts. Mrs. Messer is the former Miss Francis Erwin of Cecil.

Mr. and Mrs. John N. Hines are adding a room and bath to the home they recently purchased from the Jim Millers. They have also built a garage with a storage room overhead.

Miss Doris Chambers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burt B. Chambers, and Bill Garrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Garrett of Hazelwood, were married last Wednesday.

Mrs. Garrett was in nurses' training at Memorial Mission Hospital in Asheville, but has resigned.

Mr. Garrett recently received his discharge from the Navy. He is now employed at Dayton Rubber Company.

The Bethel PTA met Thursday afternoon (Nov. 11) in the school auditorium with Mrs. Harrison Henson, president in charge.

Refreshments were served after the business session.
