A Study in Values
THE SOLOMON SHOWS HOW TO BE TRULY SUCCESSFUL AND HAPPY IN LIFE.

... Proverbs 11:24-28; 13:7; 15:13-17; 16:8, 16; 20:11-12; 22:1-5; 28:6-28.

NEWMAN CAMPBELL
... THAT MAKES a happy, successful life? The same manner in which the wise King Solomon advocated for men of his day, and which is true now as it was then. ... of today have the same to make as to how we shape our lives as did that people, and he shows us subjects and objectives are most valuable.

of the heart the spirit is broken. "The heart of him that hath understanding seeketh knowledge; but the mouth of fools feedeth on foolishness."
"All the days of the afflicted are evil, but he that is of a merry heart hath a continual feast."
Did you ever notice when you are walking down a crowded street, how many of the people into whose faces you look are sad or just blank? I have seen people who looked so sad that I was tempted to stop them and ask if they were in deep trouble and if there was anything I could do to help.
How delightful it is to see a happy face; to hear a gay laugh to which we immediately respond with a smile. Is there anything more delightful than the happy laugh of a child? Not the vacant giggling in which young and old may indulge, but hearty laughter which cheers the dullest day, and makes us feel life is indeed worth living.
"Better is little with the fear of the Lord than great treasure and trouble therewith. Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox and hatred therewith."
The table may be set with fine china, exquisite glass and gold cutlery, but if people are unhappy, lonely or with uncongenial companions, how can even a luxu- rious feast be enjoyed? On the contrary, how happy can a family be with very common, even scanty, food, if all love one another and are happy together?

Solomon, a rich man, was not deceived by wealth. It did not necessarily make a man happy! He wrote, "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favor rather than silver and gold."
"The rich and poor meet together; the Lord is the maker of them all."
He makes no distinction between rich and poor.
"Even a child is known by his doings, whether his work be pure, and whether it be right. The hearing ear, and the seeing eye, the Lord hath made even both of them."
"A prudent man foreseeth the evil and bridleth himself; but the simple pass on and are punished."
"By humility and the fear of the Lord are riches, and honor, and life. Thorns and snares are in the way of the froward; he that does keep his soul shall be far from them."
There is more of this lesson than is included in the portion printed. There are many wonderful suggestions and advice which would be helpful if we had space to include them in our lesson. The teacher will no doubt read and draw some helpful thoughts from them.

RIGHT IN THE HOLLOW OF YOUR HAND

That's where the well-being of your family rests. You want to give them every comfort and convenience in your power. You want to keep them well-fed, well-clothed, and well-housed.

You want them to enjoy every advantage of modern science—through electricity, telephones, movies, radio, and television. Nothing, you say, is too good for those you love.

Of course, then, you'll want something more. You'll want your family to possess that exhilarating and priceless quality known as spiritual well-being—a conviction that God is the Supreme Being in the world.

With this faith your life will abound with hope and you will experience a sense of true security in these uncertain times. To God your destiny is of utmost importance.

Through prayer and regular worship you will find a haven of protection for all your family—right in the hollow of God's hand. Go to Church Sunday.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
