Mrs. Messer Heads County WC Alumnae

The annual dinner meeting of the Haywood County division of the Alumnae Association of Woman's College of the University of North Carolina was held Wednesday night at the Towne House.

The program was presented by Mrs. M. G. Stamey and was a recording of the Founders' Day program held on the College campus October 5. The recordings included an address by Harry Ashmore, editor of the Little Rock, Ark. Gazette.

Mrs. Ernest Messer of Canton was elected president of the group for the coming year, succeeding Miss Anne Albright. Other officers are Mrs. Bill Burgin, vice president; Miss Mildred Rhinehart, secretary; and Miss Nancy Medford, treasurer.

Plans were made for a Saturday luncheon meeting to be held in the spring.

300 Members Attend Sorority Convention

More than three hundred members of the Beta Sigma Phi sorority attended the annual convention of the sorority of the two Carolinas last weekend at the Robert E. Lee Hotel in Winston-Salem.

Representatives from the Waynesville chapters were Mrs. Charlie Woodard and Miss Edna Summerrow of the Xi Omicron Chapter and Mrs. Raymond Caldwell and Mrs. Rufus Pannell of the Alpha Theta chapter.

Miss Margaret Darr and Miss Adelyn Bell of Kansas City, international officers of the sorority were the main speakers at the three-day convention.

The delegates were entertained at special events, including a tour of Old Salem, a Fashion Show, and a Ball.

The 1955 convention will be held at Grove Park Inn in Asheville.

Parents' Study Is Planned For Hazelwood

A parents' study course has been planned by the Parent-Teacher Association of the Hazelwood Elementary School.

The course will be on Family Life Education and will be held in the school auditorium November 16 and 17. Parents of first and second grade children are invited to come Tuesday, November 16 from 9:30 until 11 a.m. The course will be presented for parents of third and fourth grade children November 17 from 10 until 11:30 a.m. and for parents of fifth and sixth graders, November 17, from 1 until 2:30 p.m.

Mrs. Hugh Daniel will conduct the program which will include discussions of articles from the November Parent-Teacher magazine and the showing of a film by Mrs. Howard Bryson of the county health department.

A nursery for pre-school children will be open in the Hazelwood Baptist Church during the hours of the study.

Mrs. David Hyatt left Monday for Warrenton where she will spend a few weeks with her mother, Mrs. W. H. Dameron.

Mission Study Will Include Play Tonight

The second session of a jurisdictional mission study for Haywood County Methodist churches will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock in Long's Chapel at Lake Junaluska.

The study, which is on India, Pakistan, and Ceylon, is being taught by Miss Louise Ballard, district secretary of missionary education.

Tonight's program will include a play, "That Heaven of Freedom," presented by members of the Woman's Society of the Waynesville First Methodist Church, and the showing of two films, "India, My Country," and "Pakistan Today."

Mrs. Hugh Noland will conduct the devotions. The two remaining sessions of the study will be held on Monday and Thursday nights next week. Monday night's program will include a debate between individuals representing Buddhism, Moslem Hindu, and Christianity and a discussion of the economic situation by Mrs. Isabel Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Woody are leaving tomorrow for Atlanta to spend a few days with Mrs. Woody's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Troutman.

Primrose Garden Club Will Meet Tuesday

The Primrose Garden Club will hold a luncheon meeting Tuesday at 12:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Ray Moore. Mrs. T. J. Meyer will be co-hostess.

The program will include roll call hints on Christmas Decorations and a discussion of plans for the club's Christmas Greens Sale.

Mrs. Herbert Singletary, vice president, will preside in the absence of Mrs. J. L. Edwards.
