Wool Jersey
With Satin

By VERA WINSTON WOOL jersey with contrast trim and good detail is the basis of many a fine all-day dress for this time of year. This handsome frock uses satin straps in an interesting fashion that makes it a good choice for wear from luncheon on. The satin outlines the round neckline and continues down the satin-buttoned band in a double line. Shaped darts slim the waist and give softness to the top of the slim skirt which has a self belt.

Robbery Suspects Held
After Gunfight In Canton

An early morning shooting affair Tuesday between two Gaston County men and Canton policemen resulted in the arrest of two men wanted for robbery in Mecklenburg County.
Police Chief W. N. Stroupe said Joe William McDonald, 45, and James Anderson Woodie, 20, both of Gaston County, would be turned over to District Solicitor Thad D. Bryson in Haywood Superior Court tomorrow.
McDonald is charged with driving drunk, carrying a concealed weapon and aiding and abetting in assault on officers with intent to kill.
The charges grew out of a 4 a.m. incident in which the two Canton officers, Everett Moore and James Jamlett, stopped a 1940 model car driven by McDonald and also occupied by Woodie, Stroupe said.

The officers told Stroupe that Moore told the men to step out of the car and that Woodie stepped out the right side of the vehicle and drew a gun on Jamlett. An exchange of bullets followed with Woodie firing five times at the officers and Moore firing once at Woodie.
Another gun was found on the seat of the car beside McDonald but it had not been fired, officers said.
None of the shots fired hit their mark and Woodie ran from the scene into the wood yard of the Champion Paper and Fibre Co. He was apprehended about 6 a.m. near the scene and McDonald was taken into custody after the exchange of shots.
Following the arrest it was learned that the two men were wanted in Mecklenburg County for robbery of a grocery store there Monday about 7 p.m. The store owner came to Canton and is said to have identified McDonald and Woodie as the men who robbed him of $129.45 in cash.

At the time of their arrest Mc-Donald had $74.50 on his person and Woodie had $17.80.
The two men denied knowing each other when first placed together in the Canton jail but later admitted under questioning that they are cousins, Stroupe said.
Woodie is in the U. S. Army and was to report to Camp Tillman, N. J., in a few days after a 30-day furlough.
Stroupe said the pair admitted the Mecklenburg County robbery after being identified by the store owner.

the National Geographic Society.
About 17 per cent of U. S. workers were women in 1890 compared with around 30 per cent today.

LET US BOW OUR HEADS IN THANKS

Thanksgiving is a day for family gatherings about the festive board . . . a day for turkey and fixins' and pumpkin pie. But, above all, Thanksgiving is a day to stop and think about a lot of things that we take for granted the rest of the year. Such things as the blessings of abundance, far beyond the rosiest dreams of our forefathers, who so courageously wrested a foothold in the New World. Such things as the blessing of freedom . . . for us not a distant hope, but an ever present reality. On Thanksgiving Day, let us humbly bow our heads in a prayer of grate-tude to Almighty God for all that we have, all that we are, all that we can hope to be. Let us reaffirm our faith in our free way of life and solemnly pledge ourselves to preserve it unblemished for the generations still to come.

Thanksgiving
1954

In the American tradition, on November 25, Americans will give thanks for many things.
Each person and each family may express thanks differently — and for quite different blessings.
On Thanksgiving Day, 1954, I am deeply and humbly thankful for the privilege of American citizenship, a privilege extended to me and to others who have left their native lands. I am thankful for the opportunities I found in this country, for the right to work, for the four freedoms which, as an American, I now enjoy . . . freedom from want, freedom of speech, freedom of religion and freedom from fear.

I am thankful that, after living in various places in the United States, I can now make my home in Waynesville, in the heart of Western North Carolina. I am thankful for the warm reception granted to me and to my family, and for the friendships we are privileged to share.
On this day, when I have so much to be thankful for, I extend my genuine and heartfelt wishes for a happy and blessed Thanksgiving Day for all.
