abetting in assault on officers with intent to kill.

The shooting occurred early Tuesday when Canton Police men Everette Moore and James Hamlett stopped a car driven by McDonald.

The officers said that when they ordered the men out of the car, Woodie came out, pulled a gun on Hamlett and fired five times. Hamlett fired once in return. Neither officer nor Woodie was wounded.

The policemen told Canton Police Chief W. N. Stroupe that another gun was found on the seat beside McDonald, but it had not been fired.

McDonald was taken into custody immediately. Woodie, who fled into a lumber yard, was captured several hours later.

Police quoted the pair as admitting the robbery of a Mecklenburg County store near Charlotte Monday. Officers said the men were identified by Mecklenburg County police and the owner of the store.

Canton officers also said Woodie and McDonald were identified by Gaffney, S. C., police as the men who robbed a service station there last Saturday night.

Beck, Garrett will be cited for drunkenness, he added.

Late Thursday afternoon, Ernest Vernon Fincher of Crabtree was injured slightly when his 1938 coupe left Highway 209 about two miles from Lake Junaluska and overturned in a field.

Fincher suffered cuts about his left hand and ear, according to state patrolmen Harold Dayton and W. R. Wooten. Fincher was treated at Haywood County Hospital and released.

He was given a hearing before Justice of the Peace J. J. Ferguson on a charge of driving drunk and bound over to Superior Court.

On Sunday morning at 10:30 an accident on N. C. 276 at Cruso near the Gwyn Cemetery involved a 1950 Buick driven by Miss Emma Sue Knight of Homestead, Fla., and a 1949 GMC half-ton truck driven by Troy Eugene Muse, Route 1, Waynesville.

Patrolman Bryson said that Muse's truck struck the Florida car as it started across a bridge on the highway, causing damage to the passenger car estimated at $400 and to the truck at $50.

Muse, who was coming out of a side road onto the highway, was charged with failure to yield the right-of-way.

Burley Markets Open Tomorrow

The Asheville burley market will open for the sale of the 1954 crop on Tuesday, simultaneously with the opening of the Boone and West Jefferson markets.

Two sets of government-sanctioned buyers will start bidding at 9 a. m. at Bernard Walker No. 1 and Planters No. 2. The buyers will move from Bernard Walker No. 1 to Carolina, and from Planters No. 2 to Dixie No. 2.

Sales will be held to a total of four hours a day.

The local market includes a dozen warehouses with a total of 613,420 square feet of floor space.

The Asheville Tobacco Board of Trade sets the daily schedule and the rotation of sales for the market.

Each warehouse will have some 40 minutes selling time each sales day, enough to move about 240 baskets of cured leaf.

A warehouse built by C. T. Day on Lyman St., will enter the market this year.

Two new packing houses have been added for export buyers of "red grades".
