LINING THE SIDEWALKS to watch a "Safe-Driving Day" parade at Hazelwood yesterday were these students at Hazelwood School. Preceded by police and patrol cruisers, a wrecker towed a "death car" in which one occupant was killed in an accident. (Mountaineer Photo).

FAILURE TO STOP at a stop sign cost the life of one person in this wrecked car, which was exhibited in a "Safe-Driving Day" parade at Hazelwood Wednesday. Inspecting the death vehicle are Hazelwood Police Chief Roy Stephens and members of the Hazelwood Junior Patrol. (Mountaineer Photo).

WTHS Band To Present Christmas Concert Tonight

The annual Christmas concert of the Waynesville Township High School band will be presented in the auditorium at 8:15 p.m. under the direction of Mr. T. Isley.

The concert was originally set for 8 p.m., but was rescheduled for 8:15 to avoid conflict with a Christmas pageant at Central Elementary School. The first part of the concert will include three numbers by the band: "A Christmas Fantasy," by Lillya, "Sleigh Ride" by Anderson, and overture to "The Messiah" by Handel. Part II will include a number of Christmas songs and carols by the WTHS chorus, among them: "The Twelve Days of Christmas,"

East H. Singing Convention Will Be Held Sunday

By MRS. J. EDGAR BURNETTE, Community Reporter. The East Haywood Singing Convention will be held on Sunday at 2:00 p.m. in the Riverside Baptist Church with a large group of singers participating. All singers are welcome to attend and take a part in the program.

The W.M.U. of the Riverside Baptist Church will meet at the Church on Thursday at 6:30 p.m. for a program on Missions. This is the final program as studied the past week. Mrs. T. E. Erwin, president of the society, will be in charge.

Rev. Gay Chambers was the guest minister in a week's revival meeting which was concluded with the morning service. The series of sermons were inspirational to all members attending.

The cottage prayer meeting was held on Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sorrells with the pastor, Rev. Paul Grogan, in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Edd T. Howell and daughter, Zelma Jo, spent the past week-end at their home in Marshall.

The Christmas program and tree will be held on Friday, December 24th at 7:00 p.m. at the Riverside Baptist Church.

arranged by Hoggard; "Christmas Song," arranged by Ringwald; "Carol of the Bells," arranged by Wilhoukey; "Slumber Song of the Infant Jesus," by Gevaert; six carols — "Lo How a Rose E'er Blooming," "Away in a Manger," "What Child Is This?," "Lullay, Lullay Thou Tiny Child," "While By My Sheep," and "Sing Gloria"; "Mary, Mary, Where Is Your Baby?" by Hairston; "Carol of the Questioning Child" by Kountz, and "Gesu Bambino" by Yon.

Part III of the Christmas concert will be made up of a number of special selections, including: A Christmas reading by Gail Camlin, harp solo, "Noel," by Rosalind Ammons; soprano solo, "The Birthday of a King" by Faye Sease; tenor solo, "Sweet Little Jesus Boy," by Bobby Hill; tenor solo, "O Holy Night," by Jimmy Fowler.

The final part of the program, by the band and chorus, will be "Yuletide Overture" by Lang — featuring a number of familiar Christmas carols. Linda Boone will be the piano accompanist and Henry Lofquist the organ accompanist. Advance prices are 25 and 50 cents. At the door the admission will be 35 and 75 cents.
