

Janice Ann Corzine Weds Bruce Francis Caldwell

Miss Janice Ann Corzine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Corzine of Clyde, became the bride of Bruce Francis Caldwell of Edgewood, Md., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Caldwell of Clyde, Saturday at 5 p.m. in the Clyde Central Methodist Church.

The Rev. George C. Starr, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony and a program of wedding music was presented by Miss Janice Smathers, organist, and Miss Jewell Rhinehart, soloist.

The altar was decorated with holly interspersed with poinsettias and branched candelabra holding red tapers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length dress of Chantilly lace over satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice and portrait neckline. Long sleeves ended in points over the hands.

Her shoulder length veil of trench illusion fell from a Juliet cap of matching lace and seed pearls. She carried a white Eastern Star Bible topped with a white orchid and showered with baby's breath and satin streamers.

Miss Betty Jean Mulkey of Andrews, college roommate of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a princess style dress of emerald green velvet with a scoop neckline and shirred sleeves. She wore a holly headdress and carried a bouquet of holly and red carnations.

Miss Donna Lee Caldwell of Clyde, sister of the bridegroom, was junior bridesmaid. She wore a princess style dress of emerald green velvet and her headdress was of holly. Her bouquet was of red carnations and holly.

Brenda Gail Stamey of Clyde, cousin of the bridegroom, was flower girl. Her dress was of red velvet.

William Neal Caldwell of Clyde was his brother's best man and ushers were Thomas Lee Corzine of Canton, cousin of the bride, and Richard Lanier Stamey of Clyde, cousin of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Corzine, mother of the bride, wore a dress of royal blue crepe with black accessories and a

Gypsy Gaddy Is Honored At Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gaddy were hosts of a dinner Thursday evening in their home on East Street honoring their daughter, Gypsy Gaddy.

Red candles and holly were used in decorating. Following dinner and games the guests were taken to the Christmas concert of the high school band and chorus.

Attending the party, in addition to the honor guest, were Marty Watkins, Jean Weatherby, Beth Chambers, Sandra Truitt, Sammy Stiles, David Summey, Lynn Truitt, and Gerald Summey.

white orchid corsage. The mother of the bridegroom wore teal blue with navy accessories and a white orchid corsage.

For a wedding trip by car through North Carolina and Tennessee the bride wore a brown suit with fur trim and beige and brown accessories. Her corsage was the orchid detached from her Bible.

A cake cutting was given for the wedding party and immediate families in the recreation hall of the church Thursday night following the rehearsal.

Mrs. Caldwell is a graduate of Clyde High School and attended Queen's College in Charlotte. She is now a student at Western Carolina College and will be graduated in March. She is a member of Alpha Phi Sigma honorary fraternity and of the Order of the Eastern Star.

Mr. Caldwell is a graduate of Clyde High School and Dell School of Medical Technology in Asheville. He is now serving with the U. S. Army Medical Corps at the Army Chemical Center, Edgewood, Md.

Mrs. Roy B. Medford and Mrs. Thad T. Medford are spending the Christmas season in St. Petersburg, Florida as guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. John D. Medford.
