Thinking Realistically About Life

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

The preacher wrote that "all was vanity." "What profit hath a man of all his labor? One generation passeth and another generation cometh, but the earth abideth forever."

He gave his heart to seek out by wisdom concerning all things that are done, "I have seen all the works that are done, and behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit."

He saw the oppressions that were done and beheld the tears of the oppressed, seeing they had no comforter. The oppressors had power, but they too had no comforter.

His conclusion was, that to "fear God and keep His commandments; for this is the whole duty of man." These bring contentment and happiness. MEMORY VERSE—Ecclesiastes 12:13.

YOU GAVE THEM MORE FOR CHRISTMAS THAN THEY FOUND UNDER THE TREE
Drums and dolls, airplanes and tea sets blend with the Christmas tree and smiling children. "Santa Claus" gave them the toys, but you gave them something more.
During 12 months each year, you help give them the kind of town they live in. As teen-agers, they will see and appreciate the parks, playgrounds, swimming pool, school band and youth organizations that you helped start during three finer Carolina Programs.
As they grow older, they will notice other features of a progressive, growing town. Streets will be shaded by trees you planted this year; services like water, sewage and garbage disposal systems, planned and started this year, will have grown with the town; the new manufacturing plant attracted in 1934 will be expanded and will provide many wonderful job opportunities for these new citizens.
These are only a sample of 981 finer Carolina projects started in 1934 by 164 Carolina towns. Their value in present-day "Better Living" is incalculable. Their value, when these children under the Christmas tree grow up to become tomorrow's leaders, will be even greater.
When you work for a finer town, you work for yourself AND for the children who will someday inherit the community you have helped build. They deserve the best hometown you can give them. Starting now, the next twelve months is all but too short to make your town "Carolina's Finest." And, again next Christmas, you'll be giving them more than they find under the tree.
Merry Christmas to a Happy, Prosperous, Finer Carolina
