were fighting near the Queen home, on the Sulphur Springs Road, and using loud and abusive language. Larry Queen, son of Wes, went out and asked the brothers to be quiet, as there were several women within hearing distance.

As Larry made the request, Deputy Howell said, Alfred Arrington whipped out a long knife and told Larry Queen he would "slit your throat". Arrington was holding the knife at the younger Queen's throat when Wes Queen rushed up and fired the 12-gauge gun from about 15 feet, Deputy Howell said.

The blast struck Arrington in the face, shoulder and neck. He was carried to the Hospital, where attendants said his condition was serious.

Deputy Howell said that Wes Queen had given Arrington a ride, and soon after reaching the Queen home, the two Arrington brothers began to fight.

Officers making the investigation were Deputy Howell, Sheriff Fred Campbell, Chief Orville Noland and Policeman A. P. Evans.

Deputies Howell and Everett McElroy investigated the shooting of Lloyd Moore Saturday night.

The officers said that Elmer Rogers, a neighbor, made bond at the time of arrest, and was charged with assault with a deadly weapon.

on. His bond was set at $500 and a hearing has been set for Saturday.

The deputies gave this version of their investigation. Moore had been drinking, and had been causing some trouble as Elmer Rogers, and his brother Dewey, went about their farm chores. The neighbors live within 150 yards of each other.

The Rogers brothers asked Moore to go on home and leave them alone.

About 10 o'clock Saturday night, the Rogers brothers heard Moore come to their house and try to get in, the officers' report showed.

Elmer went to the front door, and using a stick of wood, hit Moore over the head. Then the two began to wrestle around on the floor fighting.

Moore jumped up and ran towards the road, and Elmer Rogers grabbed a 16-gauge shotgun, which he had loaded when he heard Moore coming, and fired at the fleeing man, as he was about 100 feet away, the deputy continued.

The attending physician said he removed 80 shot from Moore's back and legs.

Farm stocks of old corn in N.C. on October 1 which totalled nearly 3.6 million bushels were about 14 per cent greater than farm stocks held at that date the previous year.

All the youths except Noland have been released after posting a $300 bond.

Medford and McDaniel, arrested Friday night, are scheduled for a police court hearing at 4 p.m. today. Sheriff Campbell said and the four other boys will be given hearings before Justice of the Peace J. J. Ferguson this week.

Ketner's, he said, was broken into Thursday night. Junaluska Gulf Service Friday night; Tom's Truck Stop, Monday night, and the three homes last week.

Meanwhile, the sheriff and his officers continued their investigation of three other break-ins: The Kodak Shop on the Lake Junaluska Methodist Assembly grounds, the Standard Service Station in Hazelwood, and a store owned by Mrs. E. B. Rickman in the Pigeon section.

About $35 in cash and a small quantity of cigars, candy and gloves were taken from the Hazelwood service station; and clothing, shoes, cigarettes and candy, from Mrs. Rickman's store, entered last week, the sheriff said.
