DAR Hears Mrs. McMurray Speak On UN

Mrs. Carl McMurray of Marion, state chairman of National Defense of the Daughters of the American Revolution, spoke at a meeting of the Dorcas Bell Love Chapter, DAR, Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. R. L. Prevost.

Mrs. McMurray, who was introduced by Miss Catherine Colhoun, spoke on her subject, "America at the Crossroads — Freedom or Tyranny?" She discussed the dangers of World Government, stating that with World Government the constitution of the United States could not protect this country and the United States could always be outvoted. She quoted Dr. Nelson Bell as saying that everyone wants peace but the righteous should survive even with war.

Mrs. James L. Elwood, chapter regent, presided during the business hour and the following delegates were elected to the State Conference which will be held in Winston-Salem in March: Mrs. James E. Henderson of Canton, Mrs. R. N. Barber, Mrs. T. L. Gwyn, Mrs. J. H. Howell, Sr., Mrs. J. W. Killian, Mrs. S. H. Bushnell, Mrs. Hugh Leach, Mrs. J. H. Howell, Jr., and Mrs. W. F. Swift. Mrs. John Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Raymond Lane were named alternates.

The chapter voted to give $10 to a fund to equip the Historical Room in the Haywood County Library in memory of the late Mrs. Charles E. Quinlan, a charter member, who originated the plan for the Room. A letter was read from the chaplain at Oteen Veteran's Hospital thanking the group for Christmas gifts sent to patients at the hospital.

Mrs. Robert Coleman of Canton and Miss Joan Ratcliffe were welcomed as new members.

A social hour followed the meeting and refreshments were served by the hostesses Mrs. Prevost and Mrs. J. R. Boyd.

Guests were Mrs. McMurray, Mrs. Wallace Ward, and Mrs. Burton McCroba.
