Visitors Present Church Programs

MRS. KYLE LINDSEY Community Reporter
The Wesleyan Methodist Church of Clyde had visitors from Central College last weekend. One, a minister, did the preaching for three nights, and a trio sang. The group of young folk of the church also attended the fifth Sunday convention of the W.Y.P.'s, at the Wesleyan Methodist Church of West Asheville. The church is also observing Youth Week with a full week's program this week.

We are sorry to report a lot of sickness in our community. Those on our list are Miss Katherine Osborne, who has been a patient in the Waynesville hospital for several days. Wiley Snyder, P. C. Mann, Hugh Rhinehart, Mrs. F. H. Haynes, Hershel Shook and Robert Lindsey, W. C. Justice and Frank Stamey.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Justice and family of Memphis, Tenn., were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Justice and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Haynes, last week.

The C.D.P. will have their next meeting the second Monday night of this month. The last meeting was off in attendance due to bad weather and sickness in the community.

Those visiting from college the past week were, Misses Ernestine and Lou Ann Osborne of Mars Hill, Paul Jackson of State College and Robert Deaver of Cullowhee.

Mr. and Mrs. George Limbo were recently given a miscellaneous shower at the community center, with Miss Violet Lindsey and Miss Shirley Rhodamer serving as hostesses.

Around twenty were present for the occasion and games were played. Many beautiful gifts were re-
