Beaverdam Club Holds Workshop

The Beaverdam Home Demonstration Club held an all-day meeting Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Tom Hipps with Mrs. Mark Swain as co-hostess.

The morning was devoted to a workshop on copper and aluminum planters.

At the afternoon meeting Mrs. George Frady, president, presided during the business session at which time the club voted to purchase a youth bed for the Orthopedic Hospital in Asheville. A letter of appreciation was read from Miss Powell, superintendent of the Orthopedic Hospital, for the food and clothing presented by the club on its visit to the hospital in January.

Plans were made to hold a bake sale in Canton during February, proceeds of which will go to the purchase of the youth bed.

The demonstration was on "Planning and Planting the Home Garden". Project leaders' reports were given on Gardening by Mrs. T. G. Murray and Home Beautification by Mrs. Thomas Wood.

During the social hour a recreational program was directed by the hostess and a prize was awarded to Mrs. C. C. Willis.

Sleek Broadcloth

By VERA WINSTON

SLEEK, drapable black wool broadcloth is used for a handsome long jacket suit, worn with a low-necked black satin blouse. It is a perfect choice for smart afternoon or informal theater wear. The draped neckline is caught into a three-button tab and the very low-placed pockets serve to accentuate the long slim look, of which the slim skirt is a part.
