death of his grandfather, Van Moody, in a traffic accident at the intersection of U. S. 19 and the Jonathan Creek road last Summer, was given a two-year sentence, suspended for five years.

He also was ordered to pay a total of $1,718.32 to the Clerk of Courts office, at the rate of $30 per month, to be paid to persons injured in the accident and to the Haywood County and Memorial Mission Hospitals.

He was further directed not to drive a motor vehicle for two years.

In the case of Eula Cagle, charged with violating the prohibition laws, Judge Moore ordered a change made in a court order of November, 1953, which sentenced the woman in a two-year term in Central Prison, Raleigh, which had no quarters for women prisoners.

After discovering the error, Judge Susie Sharp of Reidsville, who presided here during the November, 1953 criminal term of Superior Court, attempted to amend the original order while presiding in Buncombe County in August, 1954.

The case later went to the North Carolina Supreme Court, which held that the error could be amended only in a Haywood County court.

Mrs. Cagle was ordered to serve out the remainder of her two-year term in quarters provided for women prisoners by the State Highway and Public Works Commission.

Other cases heard were: Vinton H. Williams, charged with speeding, forfeited a $50 cash bond.

William Oliver Higgins, charged with speeding, forfeited a $50 bond.

Peyton I. Ingle, speeding, forfeited a $31.35 bond.

Roy Joe Gibson, driving drunk, fined $50 and costs, operator's license revoked for 12 months.

Vivian D. Harwood vs. Floyd J. Harwood, divorce granted.

Milford Allen Chapman, no operator's license, forfeited a $31.25 bond.

Joseph G. Smart, forfeited a $200 bond.

Martha Moore, forcible trespass, sentenced to eight months in jail.

Sue Ledford, violation of the prohibition laws, given a three-year suspended sentence, ordered to pay court costs.

Carl Dale McElrath, permitting an unlicensed person to operate a motor vehicle, fined $25 and costs.

John Thomas Kern, speeding, forfeited a $31.25 bond.

Frank D. Haney, speeding, forfeited a $50 bond.

Henderson Carl Ellis, Jr., speeding, forfeited a $50 bond.

Joe Haney, larceny, sentenced to prison for from three to five years.

Charlie Connor, non-support, given a 12-months suspended sentence, assessed court costs and ordered to pay $50 monthly for support of his two minor children.

Robert Roy Phillips, driving drunk, fined $150 and costs, license revoked for 18 months.

Raymond H. Wilson, embezzlement, given an 8-month suspended sentence upon payment of $1,296.78 to the plaintiff and court costs.

John Henry Jolly, non-support, ordered to pay $15 monthly and court costs.

Robert Medford, larceny, sentenced 18 months in a first offender's camp.

James Howard Franklin, speeding, forfeited $50 cash bond.

Douglas C. Davis, driving intoxicated, fined $100, and costs, license revoked, 12 months, and put on three years probation.

Ernest Early, given 30 days in jail for public drunkenness.
