The Church Proclaims the Gospel ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Scripture—Mark 16:13; Acts 2:14-41; Romans 10:8-15; I Corinthians 1:13-25; Colossians 1:24-29. By Alfred J. Buescher

Jesus appeared to His eleven disciples and gave them His command, that they should go into the world and preach the gospel to all creation. When the Holy Ghost fell on the disciples, they talked strangely, seeming to be drunk. Peter, standing with them, told the people to listen to his words. Then Peter talked of Jesus whom they had crucified but who was raised from the dead, and he called upon his hearers to repent and be baptized. "Whoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." But how could they believe without a preacher? MEMORY VERSE—Romans 1:16.

The Golden Text

Jesus appoints the twelve. "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew and also to the Greek."—Romans 1:16.

New 198-hp Mercury pulls 4 tons up Nob Hill

Tough San Francisco test proves that Mercury's new Super-Torque V-8 delivers more usable power to the rear wheels—where it counts!

You may never have to haul a 41-foot, 8090-pound trailer. But the fact is that this car—a standard production model—easily pulled this load up one of the steepest hills in the country, a phenomenal demonstration of the tremendous reserve power in this new Mercury Montclair.

There's 198 horsepower in its new SUPER-TORQUE V-8 engine. And there's a new dual-exhaust system and a 4-barrel carburetor to put this power to work. You get far more than just greater top speed. You enjoy split-second getaway, instant response for passing, effortless hill climbing—super pickup in every speed range.

But the Mercury story of 1955 isn't based on power alone. You get exclusive styling shared by no other car—in 3 stunning series, 10 bigger-all-over models. You get new improvements in ball-joint front suspension . . . faster-acting Merc-O-Matic Drive (optional) . . . and 20% larger brakes. It will pay you to visit us soon.
