Ratcliffe Cove CDP Appoints New Committees

By MRS. MARK PALMER
Community Reporter

The officers of the Ratcliffe Cove CDP met Tuesday night with Mrs. Mark Galloway. Plans were made for the year. Our next meeting will be held at Elizabeth Chapel Methodist Church.

A group of community officers will tour this community Saturday, April 2 and take some pictures and talk to the farmers and homesteaders on "What I Plan for '55".

Then on Saturday, September 3 the second tour will be made and more pictures will be taken. Prizes will be given to the most well-kept farm and most well-kept home, lawn, and flower arrangements.

New committees are: Cemetery—F. L. Leonard, chairman; Clavmer McCracken, Mark Palmer, Herb Francis.

4-H Leader—Mrs. Lem Leonard. Finance—Mrs. F. L. Leonard, chairman; Mrs. Mark Galloway, Mrs. James Medford, Mrs. Hugh Ratcliffe, Ward Kirkpatrick.

Religion—Rev. Grady Barringer, chairman; James Messer, Jack Arrington, Walter Francis.

Beef Cattle—Jack Felmet, chairman; John Morrow, Turner Gaddy.

Dairy Cattle—Don Whisenant, chairman; Mrs. F. L. Leonard, Wade Francis.

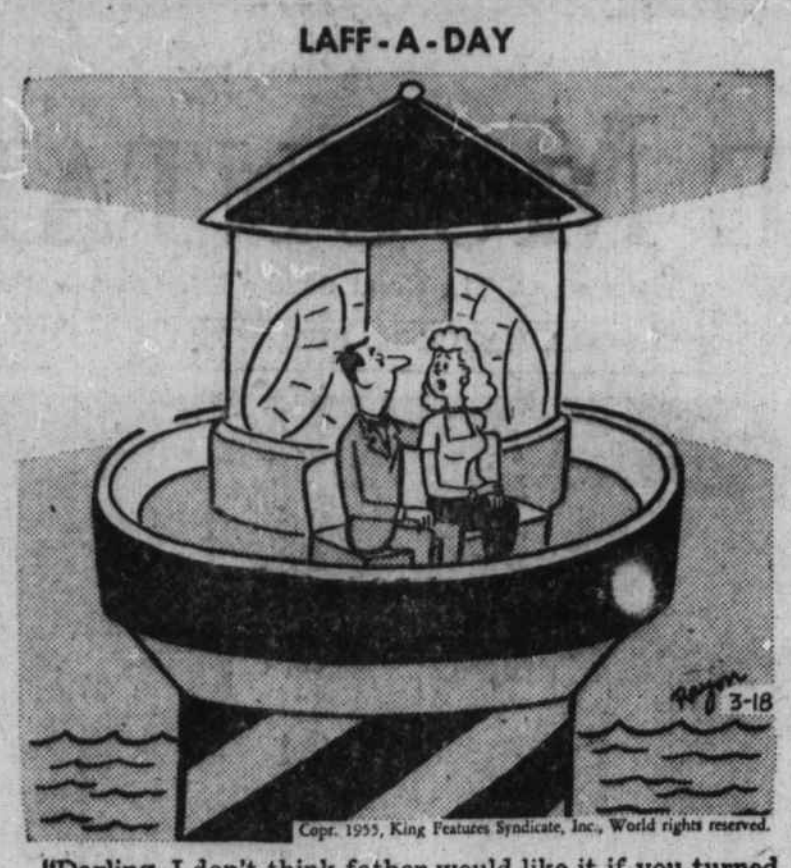

Vegetable Garden—Mrs. Bill Liner, chairman; George Liner, J. C. Jones.

Mailbox and Road Signs—Bill Leonard, chairman; Carl Jones, Don Reeves, Hugh Ratcliffe.

Refreshments—Phyllis Leonard, Joyce Cady, Tilda Leonard, Miekev Pathbone, Linda Jones, Carolyn Ratcliffe, Gale Kirkpatrick.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Liner and son, Marshville, spent the weekend here with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Liner of Ratcliffe Cove.

Teeth Fail To Click

GREENVILLE, S. C. (AP)—Atty. Sol Abrams urged a witness to speak up more plainly—the court was having trouble understanding.

"Do you have anything in your mouth," Abrams asked. "Nothing but my false teeth," the witness snapped back.

Clyde High Hi-Lights

By VIOLET LINDSEY

Last Friday morning we were entertained by Jimmy Haney of Canton. He explained the difference between ballads and hill-billy songs and also gave the history of some well-known ballads.

He sang a number of ballads including "Barbara Allen," "John Henry," and "On Top of Old Smoky."

He also sang several hill-billy songs, which he has recorded.

Monday morning Mrs. Shook's fifth grade gave a program for the high school assembly. The children gave some scripture, poems, and songs. Kay Winfrey and Sharon Shook rendered two piano solos.

Another special program was given Tuesday, sponsored by the senior class. Mrs. Cannon's second and third grade presented an interesting program on "A Child's Garden of Verse," by Robert Louis Stevenson. Poems, songs and a dance were included on the program.

The seniors are working hard on their senior play. We hope to give an excellent performance April 1st.

Injuries Sustained By Canton Man In Wreck

Roy Alonza Brank, 45, of Canton, was injured about 2 a.m. Tuesday when a 1955 Pontiac coupe he was driving went out of control on Haywood Road in front of Groce Funeral Home in West Asheville and crashed into a power pole.

Brank, who was charged with reckless driving and damage to the properties of the Carolina Power and Light Co., and the home, was given treatment at Memorial Mission Hospital.

port shows the car, traveling a high rate of speed, striking the pole and then cutting through the roof of the funeral home.

Asheville police said this was the third accident in recent years on this Haywood Road curve.

There is a daily net loss of agricultural workers from can farms.
