Jehoshaphat's Righteous Leadership
HE TAUGHT HIS PEOPLE TO TRUST IN GOD
AND BE TRUE TO HIM

Scripture—II Chronicles 17-20.

Jehoshaphat's Righteous Leadership
Jehoshaphat, son of Asa, the throne of Judah after the death of his father in 870 B.C. he was 35 years old. The thing he did, according to the Bible, was to strengthen the kingdom against Israel, the kingdom which consisted of tribes which had remained Rehoboam.

The Lord was with Jehoshaphat because he walked in the ways of his father David, and not unto Baalim. But the Lord God of his father walked in His commandments, and not after the doings of Israel. Israel was still following false gods.

Jehoshaphat's kingdom was peaceful, and all his people feared him and he had honor. He took away places and groves out of the land, to bring his people back to the Lord, he sent out among them Benhai, Zechariah, Nethanel and to teach in the cities of Judah.

Missionaries carried with them the book of the law of the Lord, the first five books of the Old Testament, which the Pentateuch. They taught the people, so that "the ment of judges and his wise counsel to them. This passage—from II Chronicles 19:5-11—should be studied earnestly by the older pupils especially. There is much wisdom and instruction in them.

Now we come to the last dramatic incident in the lesson—the invasion of Judah by the Moabites and Ammonites. Jehoshaphat gathered his people together, "all Judah, with their little ones, their wives and their children," at Jerusalem and prayed fervently to the Lord to help them.

To the prophet Jahaziel came the spirit of the Lord saying that Judah need not be afraid; they need not fight a battle, "Stand ye still, and see the salvation of the Lord with you, O Judah." The king bowed his head to the ground and all his people did likewise, and worshipped. Early next morning they went forth into the wilderness to meet the enemy.

Jehoshaphat consulted with his people and then appointed singers who would sing of the beauty of holiness and praise the Lord for His goodness. The singers went out before the army and began to sing. The Lord caused the inhabitants of Seir to ambush the Moabites and Ammonites, and they were utterly destroyed, so that from the watch tower Judah could see nothing but bodies of the dead.

Then indeed did Judah praise the Lord, pouring into Jerusalem with psalteries and harps and trumpets to thank Him for His mercies.

THE WONDERFUL SHIP

She'll sail with the best of them, because into her fashioning have gone the eager hands of a small boy and the gentle, experienced touch of an old man. Across bright blue water her miniature sails will billow clean and white, and into the eyes of these two will steal a new light of pleasure.

There has been guidance in the making of this boat, the loving guidance of one who has weathered life's storms and gained from them the comfort of experience. And the boy, sensing this experience, is happy in a childlike confidence that this ship . . . this wonderful ship . . . can never sink.

It may be that on some brave voyage the little boat will meet disaster, and this lad will learn that material possessions so seldom last. He is also learning to find faith in a ship that is unsinkable. That ship is the Church . . . and it will carry him through calm seas and storms throughout the voyage of life. Every child should learn early to anchor his life to the Church.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
