

Lions Club Observes Ladies' Night

The Waynesville Lions Club observed Ladies' Night with a dinner Thursday evening at the Lake Junaluska School cafeteria.

Joe Cline, club president, served as master of ceremonies and welcomed wives of the members and other guests.

The program was presented by members of the Candler Lions Club and included selections by a vocal quartet and a mock board of directors meeting. A special feature was a parody of the popular song, Davie Crockett, arranged as a campaign song for Lawrence Leatherwood, candidate for governor of Lions District 31-A.

A May Day theme was carried out in the decorations and the tables were arranged with miniature May Poles. The ladies' all received favors of costume jewelry. More than one hundred and fifty Lions and guests were present.

MRS. DEAN IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. Delos Dean of Hazelwood is a patient at Memorial Mission Hospital, Asheville. She expects to be in the hospital several days.

Miss Ostrander Is Bride Of Joel Gilreath

Miss Myrtle May Ostrander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Ostrander of Niagara Falls, N. Y., became the bride of Airman Second Class Joel Robert Gilreath, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard K. Gilreath of Canton, April 23, at 2 p.m. in the First Methodist Church of Niagara Falls.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Shirley Travis. A program of traditional music was presented.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white nylon tulle over satin with a jacket of Chantilly lace. The tulle skirt was trimmed with matching lace. Her finger-tip veil of French illusion fell from an open crown pill box hat of Chantilly lace edged with sequins and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Bertha Blubar was matron of honor. She wore a gown of maize Chantilly lace and nylon tulle, fashioned with a long torso and full skirt. Her headress was a band of pleated tulle trimmed with flowers, and she carried a bouquet of mixed spring flowers.

Miss Shirley Livingston, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Her gown of green Chantilly lace and nylon tulle and her headress were designed like that of the matron of honor. She also carried mixed spring flowers.

Sgt. William Sanchez of Brooklyn, N. Y. was best man, Ushers were Harry and Ronald Livingstone, cousins of the bride, of Tillsonburg, Ontario, Canada.

A reception was held following the ceremony, after which the couple left for Almagordo, New Mexico. For traveling the bride wore a three piece flamingo suit with gray accessories, and a corsage of yellow roses.

They will reside in Almagordo while A2/c Gilreath is stationed there with the U. S. Air Force.

Helen Garrett, Bride-Elect Is Honored

Miss Helen Garrett, bride-elect of Clark Hinkley, was the honor guest at a miscellaneous shower given Friday evening with Mrs. P. H. Gentry and Mrs. Howell Crawford as hostesses in the home of the former.

A bridal motif was carried out with arrangements of white carnations and greenery. The shower gifts were presented in a green and white umbrella.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. Sallie Lou Justice and Mrs. Ralph Phillips.

Forty guests were included. About a third of the world's tin comes from Malaya.
