Mrs. Barber
Is Speaker
At DAR Meeting

Mrs. R. N. Barber, delegate to the Continental Congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Washington, gave a report of the congress at a meeting of the Dorcas Bell Love Chapter, DAR, Friday afternoon in the Assembly Room of the Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. R. B. Barker and Mrs. G.
L. Uzzle were hostesses.

Mrs. James L. Elwood, regent, presided during the business hour and annual reports were given by officers and standing committees.

Announcement was made that Mrs. J. W. Seaver, a member of the chapter who recently underwent eye surgery, is now convalescing in the home of a relative in Winnsboro, S. C. and her address was given as Box 233, Winnsboro.

Mrs. Ben Colkitt reported that 50 lineage books belonging to the chapter, which are kept in the Haywood County Library, have been sent to a company for re-binding.

Refreshments were served during the social hour.

Mrs. Frank Hendricks and daughter, Nancy, left Saturday for Baltimore, Md., to visit the former's father, Dr. E. Carr Choate of Salisbury, who has undergone eye surgery in a Baltimore hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Turner and Pinkney Thrbly left Sunday for their home in Elmer, N. J. after spending the weekend here to attend funeral services for their sister, Mrs. G. N. Henson of Rutherfordton. They were guests of their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Martin during their stay.

Dr. and Mrs. Paul Stappenbeck have arrived from Fort Myers, Fla., to spend the summer season at their home at Lake Junaluska.
They spent five months touring Europe after leaving the Lake last September.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Woltz and their three young sons of Mount Airy were weekend guests of Mrs.
Woltz' mother, Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Morgan and Miss Mozelle Limer are spending this week in Miami, Florida where they are attending the Southern Baptist Convention.

PLEASE DON'T SCRATCH

It is a good idea, advise the experts, not to stack more than 12 plates high, with the smallest on top. It is a good idea, too, to separate the plates with a paper napkin or cloth mat to protect them from scratches.

WAYNESVILLE HIGH MASCOTS who served as ring bearer and flower girl, respectively, at the annual WTHS May Dance Saturday night at the armory were David Clement, son of Mr. and Mrs.
Robert Clement of Maggie, and Cathy Caldwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Caldwell, 405 Richland St., Waynesville.

Merchant Directors
To Meet 7:30 Tonight

The directors of the Merchants Association will meet tonight, 7:30, according to Frank Moore, president.

The board will discuss the combination dues along with the Chamber of Commerce memberships, Moore said, as the two will be collected at the same time this year, as the Merchants Association is a division of the Chamber of Commerce.

A. J. Reno To Head
Canton Legion Post

A. J. Reno, Sr., was elected commander of the Varner-Rhinehart Post, American Legion last week at the Legion Home.

Other officers named were: A.
C. Rickman, vice commander; J.
R. Ford, adjutant and finance officer; J. Clayton Lime, chaplain; Carroll Towe, sergeant-at-arms; C.
W. Hardin, historian; and L. C.
Hall, service officer.

West Pigeon CDP
To Meet Thursday

By MRS. CLIFTON TERRELL
Community Reporter

West Pigeon CDP will meet on Thursday night at 8 p.m. in the Bethel School lunchroom.
The program committee has announced that Jeter Martin will show the slides made while he was on a tour of Europe recently.

The Leopard family quartet of Ratcliffe Cove will furnish the special music for the night. Carson Clark, CDP chairman, will be in charge of the meeting. All residents of the community are urged to attend.

Sonoma Chapter No. 254 O.E.S. met at the Lodge Hall last Tuesday night for a regular meeting and special Mother's Day program.
Mrs. Lou Singleton, Worthy Matron, was in charge. A social hour was held after the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Deitz are remodeling their home on Pigeon River Road.

The Women's Society of Christian Service met last Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. M.
Sherrill with Mrs. Hugh K. Terrell as assistant hostess.

The Bethel Presbyterian Youth Fellowship held a skating party on Saturday night at the Asheville Skating Rink.

Henry M. Hope, Sr. visited his son, Henry Jr. on Wednesday night of last week.

The work day held at the Bethel Presbyterian Church on last Friday was a big success as far as the amount of work that was accomplished. The rainy weather and the fact that it was Friday the 13th kept the crowd small, but the lunch was delicious and the church floors show a big improvement.

Mrs. W. T. Terrell of West Pigeon has received word that her brother Erastus Chambers of Ced-ro Woolly, Washington, is seriously ill in a hospital.

Mrs. Tom Cathey is improving but is still on the sick list.
