Two Gaston Men Arrested Here In Stolen Car

Two men from Gastonia must know by now that stealing cars, drinking, and heading for Haywood does not pay. About 1:30 Wednesday morning Sheriff Fred Campbell, and Policemen Davis and Reece, arrested two men, 33 and 34, drunk in a car on Hyatt Creek. The car had a dealer's tag, which aroused the officer's suspicion, and they called Gastonia to find that the car had been stolen. The officers found the key to the car under a floor mat. The men had parked the car on Hyatt Creek, and disturbed folk in a nearby house. The officers were called, and arrested the two men. Officers from Gastonia arrived about noon and took the men back

County Agents Traveling Route Of Farm Tour

County Agent Virgil L. Holloway and assistant agent Homer Sink left here Tuesday for a 10-day tour of the route for the 12-state farm tour in July. The tour, scheduled for July 18-28, will pass through North Carolina, Tennessee, Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, South Dakota, Wyoming, Nebraska, and Missouri. Approximately 100 county residents are expected to go on the tour this year. Several months ago, two other men from Gastonia fired at Canton police as the officers tried to stop their car on a routine search. The men were wanted in Gastonia and returned there to stand trial

Hazelwood Adds Street Washer

The Town of Hazelwood has put a street-washing unit in operation. The equipment was purchased from Waynesville last fall and has been completely renovated and put into first-class condition, according to Mayor Lawrence Davis. The street department, under the supervision of Jerry Crawford, will wash Hazelwood streets every

JOHN WYATT IN HOSPITAL

John Wyatt of the Big Cove section of Allens Creek is now a patient at Memorial Mission Hospital, Asheville, where he was taken after suffering injuries in a fall from a roof. Ten counties in the United States each produced more than 10 million tons of coal in 1953.

Correction

An article in Monday's issue of The Mountaineer was in error concerning the case of John A. Scott and his wife, Maeie Scott, vs. George K. Worley. A jury awarded Mr. and Mrs. Scott a judgment of $547 from Mr. Worley, in connection with the cutting off of the former's water supply. The Mountaineer regrets this error.

Could Dance

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — Irving Kline, automobile dealer, was trying to speak before the Norfolk Advertising Club. Members couldn't cut off the piped-in music and Kline was faring second best. "I can go into a dance if you want me to," he remarked wryly. It wasn't necessary. The music was stopped.
