Saddle Maker Retires

FORT CARSON, Colo. (AP) — M. Sgt. Vaughn E. Jones, probably the last master saddle maker in the Army, is due for retirement soon after almost 20 years work for the cavalry.

In 1950 the Army closed the last saddle-making school at Ft. Riley, Kan., and Jones started caring for modern machine guns and recoilless rifles.

But the 40-year-old soldier says he will open a saddle shop as soon as he's a civilian.

was NATO "Red Trident I," held in mid-March at Saros Bay, Turkey.

At intervals, training was suspended for visits to Mediterranean ports in Algeria, Italy, Greece, Turkey, France and Spain.
