Dorothy Lane Prevost Weds Lt. James Norwood Swift

Miss Dorothy Lane Prevost, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lee Prevost, Jr. of Grimsball Park, Hazelwood, became the bride of Lt. James Norwood Swift, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Faucette Swift of Waynesville, in a ceremony at the Waynesville Presbyterian Church Friday, June 17 at 8 p.m.

The Rev. Malcolm Williamson, former pastor of the church, pronounced the vows.

A program of traditional music was presented by Stanford Massie, organist, and Mrs. James L. Kilpatrick, soloist. Mr. Massie played excerpts from "Messe Basse," by Vierne and from "Suite Gothique," by Baellmann, "To A Wild Rose," by McDowell, Prelude to Act III from "Lohengrin" and "Andantino," by Lemore. Mrs. Kilpatrick sang "Until" by Sanderson and "At Dawning," by Cadman prior to the ceremony and "A Wedding Prayer," by Dunlap as a benediction.

The altar was decorated with palms and ferns interspersed with floor vases of white gladiolus and white larkspur, and seven-branched candelabra.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of white slipper satin fashioned with molded bodice, short sleeves, and a v-neckline which was outlined with a wide band of Alencon lace. The full skirt extended into a chapel train. She wore long white gloves and her veil, which fell beyond the train, was attached to a Juliet cap of satin and Alencon lace. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried her grandmother's prayer book which was showered with gardenias, stephanotis, and ivy.

Frank Inman, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Bob Christian, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rothrock, Mrs. Harold Tingen, and Mrs. Howell Abbott.

Mrs. John Bremer of Columbus, Georgia, former college roommate of the bride, was matron of honor and Miss Joan Prevost, sister of the bride, was maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Miss Binney Putnam of Fort Pierce, Florida, a former college classmate of the bride, and Miss Laura Woody and Miss Linda Sloan, both of Waynesville.

The attendants were gowned alike in full length dresses of soft yellow nylon chiffon over taffeta. The draped bodices were smocked with pearls and the full skirts were worn over hoops. They wore short white gloves and carried crescent-shaped bouquets of blue delphinium, yellow roses, baby's breath, and ivy.

Robin McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. McDonald of Larned, Kansas, and nephew of the bridegroom, was ringbearer.

William F. Swift, Jr. served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Ralph Prevost, III, brother of the bride, William F. Finley, Jr., of Valdosta, Ga., William A. Dupre of Rome, Ga., and William M. Webster of Greenville, S. C., all fraternity brothers of the bridegroom, and Robert E. Massie and Jeff Reece, of Waynesville.

Immediately following the ceremony the parents of the bride entertained with a reception in their home.

Mrs. Prevost, mother of the bride, wore a full length gown of champagne rose lace fashioned with a lace bodice and full skirt of nylon tulle. Her corsage was of talisman roses. Mrs. Swift, mother of the bridegroom, wore a gown of ashes of roses lace and chiffon and her corsage was a lavender orchid.

Assisting in receiving were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Barber, Jr., Mrs. T. G. Boyd, Miss Nancy Killian, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Worthington, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Reece, Mr. and Mrs. Hallett Ward, Dr. and Mrs. R. S. Roberson, Mr. and Mrs. William Prevost, Mr. and Mrs. White-ner Prevost, Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Woody, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sloan, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Prevost, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Prevost, Miss Nancy Francis, Miss Julia Ann Stovall, Miss Sally Stovall, Miss Dody Prevost, Miss Ann Prevost, Mrs. Erwin Burgen, Miss Nancy Prevost, Miss Susan Prevost, Miss Elizabeth Watkins, Miss Helen Ray, Mrs. Claude Allen, Mrs. Charles Ray, and Mrs. Felix Stovall.

The dining room table was centered with a tiered wedding cake and garlands of simalax fell from the chandelier to arrangements of gardenias at the four corners. Arrangements of white flowers and greenery were used throughout the home.

Following the reception the bridal couple left for a wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a navy cotton tweed suit with white linen trim. Her accessories were navy and her corsage was of gardenias from her prayer book.

MRS. JAMES NORWOOD SWIFT is the former Miss Dorothy Lane Prevost, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lee Prevost. Her wedding was held Friday evening in the Waynesville Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Swift is a graduate of Waynesville High School and Stephens College, Columbia, Missouri. She was presented at the Debutante Ball in Raleigh in the fall of 1953.
