Quality Replaces High Pressure Salesmanship

By CHRISTINE BAERMANN
Committee Chairman

Chamber of Commerce officials have announced that the four cultural events, particularly the forthcoming two-piano concert Friday night, are a "testrun" for our community.

They feel that Waynesville citizens want high quality entertainment, both for themselves and their summer visitors, and this is the first opportunity in several years we have had to hear top-quality professional talent.

If audience response is enthusiastic this summer—as it was for the first event last Friday night—there should be many more good things to come, both winter and summer.

The public has its chance to show support and enthusiasm by going to the Chamber of Commerce office this week where $3.00 season tickets or the $1.00 ticket for next Friday night's concert are available. The Library Building Fund benefits from all profits.

Nelson and Neal, two-piano team who have played hundreds of concerts throughout the United States, will present a program of classics including Bach, Schubert, Brahms, Copland and a group of waltzes by Johann Strauss. It is seldom a town our size has the opportunity to hear such top-notch talent.

The concert will be held under the stars on the grounds of the proposed library building, corner of Haywood and Boyd Avenues.

Younger people are urged to supplement installed seating with light folding chairs from home, or blankets and pillows for sitting on the ground.

In case of rain, programs are moved to the new Central Elementary School nearby.

There are no ticket committees. The Chamber of Commerce is confident people will express their approval of this program by buying tickets in advance.

MISS HOWELL BETTER TODAY

Miss Eynona Howell was reported to be some better this morning at the Haywood County Hospital where she has been since becoming seriously ill last week.

Irma Berry Smith Weds James Robert Lewis, Jr.

Miss Irma Berry Smith, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Horace L. Smith of Canton, became the bride of James Robert Lewis, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Lewis of Asheville, Saturday, July 16 at 7:30 p.m. in the First Baptist Church in Canton.

The Rev. Smith, father of the bride and pastor of the church, performed the ceremony. A program of music was presented by Mrs. M. A. Harvey, organist, and Gene Goodson, vocalist, both of Canton.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Horace L. Smith, Jr. of Chattanooga, Tennessee. She wore a gown of white Chantilly lace and bridal satin, fashioned with a moulded bodice of lace and matching jacket designed with a rolled collar and long tapered sleeves. The bouffant satin skirt, overlaid with lace, flowed into a cathedral train.

Her two-tiered veil of French illusion was attached to a small shell hat trimmed with seed pearls and sequins, and she carried a white Bible-topped with a white orchid.

Mrs. M. F. Washam of Canton was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a gown of yellow net and crystal, fashioned with a draped bodice and a full skirt. She wore a floral coronet, and carried a bouquet of shasta daisies tied with multicolored ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. H. L. Smith, Jr., of Chattanooga, Mrs. William Churm of Anniston, Ala., and Canton, Miss Virginia Cline of Canton, Miss Lynda Colvard of Lenoir, Miss Joan Williams of Canton, and Mrs. R. E. Robeson of Newport News, Va.

Their gowns of aqua net and crystal were identical in design to that of the honor attendant. They also wore floral headdresses and carried bouquets of shasta daisies.

Miss Shirley Ann Lewis of Asheville, sister of the bridegroom, was junior attendant. Her dress was of yellow net and crystal, and she carried a miniature bouquet of daisies.

James R. Lewis of Asheville was his son's best man. Ushers were James R. Day of Asheville, Thomas Gupton of Rocky Mount, cousin of the bridegroom, Joel C. Holt of Asheville, M. F. Washam of Canton, Ralph Beaver and Eddie Waller, both of Asheville.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the social hall of the church. Those who assisted were Miss May Holtclaw, Mrs. James Jordan, Miss Adrienne Smathers, Mrs. Joe Wells, Miss Jane Johnson, Miss Patsy Messer, Mrs. Joe Dale McCracken, Miss Barbara Moore, and Miss Joan Fincher.

The couple left for a tour of the southeastern states. For traveling the bride wore a Nile green, princess style, dress with a matching jacket, beige accessories, and the orchid from her Bible.

Mrs. Lewis was graduated from Canton High School and Western Carolina College. Mr. Lewis was graduated from Lee H. Edwards High School, attended the University of N. C., and was graduated from Western Carolina College.

The couple will reside in Canton until September 1, at which time Mr. Lewis will enter the Physical Therapy School of the Medical College of Virginia in Richmond.
