convertible collar, French cuffs and perfectly matched pocket. At right, a striking Paisley print on fine wool challis, used in a smart tailored shirt for town or country. Morton recommends tweed skirts to team with both shirts.

Eugenia Boone, Bride-Elect, Is Honored

Miss Eugenia Boone, whose marriage to James Jeter will be an event of July 31, was honored at a tea given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. W. A. Hyatt, and her daughter, Miss Nancy Hyatt, in their home on Haywood Street.

During the first hour, guests were greeted on the porch by Mrs. W. F. Swift and Mrs. Leon Killian, Jr. In the receiving line were the hostesses, the bride-elect and her mother, Mrs. R. H. Boone, and the mother and grandmother of the bridegroom-elect, Mrs. R. R. Jeter and Mrs. Ida H. Redditt. Mrs. Zeb Curtis and Miss Nancy Killian presided at the tea table and assisting in the dining room were Mrs. Clarence Hyatt, Mrs. Joe Boone, and Miss Nancy Jo Doggett.

The tea table was covered with a lace cloth and the centerpiece was a pink and white arrangement of roses, lilies, sweet peas, and baby's breath. A green and white color scheme was carried out in the ices and appointments.

Mrs. Ernest Hyatt and Mrs. H. L. Boyd, Jr. received on the porch during the second hour with Mrs. Joe Doggett, Mrs. Homer Plott and Mrs. Rufus Siler presiding in the dining room. Assisting in serving were Mrs. J. P. Francis, Jr. and the Misses Ruth, Helen, and Linda Boone.

Around one hundred and twenty-five guests were included in the courtesy.
