County Men On TVA Tour To Alabama

Charles Edwards of Lake Junaluska and Zimmery Messer of Waynesville represented Haywood County at the second annual meeting of the TVA Test Demonstration Farmers Association at Muscle Shoals, Ala., last week.

Twenty-six men from eight Western North Carolina counties made the trip by bus to Alabama.

In addition to a visit to Wilson Dam and TVA fertilizer plant, the test demonstration group also visited a 900-acre Aberdeen-Angus farm with its pre-Civil War house a horse-breeding farm, and the site of strip mining of phosphate.

The present address of 11 Haywood County men is now being sought by Selective Service Board 45, according to Way Mease, chairman of the board.

Surviving, in addition to the mother and grandmother, are three sisters, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Elizabeth Jaddy of Salem, N. J., and Mrs. Georgia Agnor of Wilmington, Del.
