By VERA WINSTON

THE refreshing color scheme that is brown and white is turning up with happy frequency this summer and, seems destined to carry on in the season ahead. But right now here it is, the star of a golf or spectator sports dress of striped cotton. White ribbing marks the open armholes and the buttoned front band. The belt starts from the sides in front and buttons in back. One large pocket at right hip and kick pleat in back.
