Deliverance and Return

PERSIAN KING CYRUS IS TOLD BY GOD TO RELEASE THE JEWS TO RETURN TO JUDAH, REBUILD TEMPLE

Scripture—Ezra 1; 2:64-65; Isaiah 44:21-45:13.
By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
THE EDITOR of Peloubet's Notes, Dr. Wilbur M. Smith, D.D., tells in this lesson of his experience in his visit in 1937 to Jerusalem. He was aided in his efforts to find his location in the newer portion of the city by a young Jewish woman who had left the United States and a lucrative teaching position to return to Palestine. She thought God must have directed her to go there, she explained.
As our lesson is about the people of Judah returning to their homeland after years of captivity, the joy they expressed must have been that of thousands of persecuted people fleeing from Europe to Palestine during and after the dreadful Nazi persecution and annihilation of many of their race.

MEMORY VERSE
"Look unto Me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth; for I am God, and there is none else."—Isaiah 45:22.

For the first time in centuries the Jews now have a homeland to which they can go and feel safe.
More than 100 years before the birth of the victorious King Cyrus of Persia, the prophet Isaiah prophesied that God would talk to Cyrus and tell him to free the Jewish people and let them go back to Judah to rebuild God's temple, which Nebuchadnezzar had destroyed.
It was in the first year of the reign of Cyrus that the word of the Lord came to him. He immediately put forth a proclamation saying, "Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, The Lord God of heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and he hath charged me to build Him an house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah."
Do we, when we have sinned and been forgiven, resolve with all our hearts not to transgress again, but to deserve the benefits that are ours? If so we shall not have studied these lessons in vain. Let us resolve to be good and do good, for God is love, and Jesus will be with us and help us.

AS MODERN AS TOMORROW

Does going to church seem to you old-fashioned? Well, it is, for worship is as old as creation, yet ever-new. In church buildings before the fourteenth century there were no seats. Worshippers stood, or sat on cold damp floors. Later, three-legged stools were used. Today, churches compare with our finest buildings in modern beauty, comfort, and convenience. Our speech habits have changed with advancing generations. Scriptural style, too, has changed, yet neither meaning nor intent has been altered. The Bible's message remains the same—a gospel of good news filled with faith, hope, and love—for you, the same as for your forefathers. Then be old-fashioned. Go to church. Find for yourself a faith that is steadfast—"the same yesterday, today, and forever,"—yet modern as tomorrow.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
