Waynesville Woman Wins Contest Prize

A winning limerick has made Mrs. Maletto Hampton, 610 Government St., Waynesville, eligible for three grand prize awards in the $400,000 Sealy Posturepedic Contest, Sealy, Inc. of Chicago announced today.

The winner, who entered through Garrett's Furniture Store of Waynesville, receives a Sealy Posturepedic mattress, and contest officials will now consider the entry for one of three grand national awards.

The Sealy Posturepedic contest, the nation's largest in the home furnishings field, offers as its first prize $20,000 cash at once or $100 a month for life, covered by a policy from North American Life Insurance Co. A two-week, all-expense vacation for two in Paris, plus $300 spending money and air travel via TWA Constellation, is second grand prize. The third award is a 1955 Packard Caribbean Convertible.

Sealy, Inc. said that 5,000 winning entries were chosen from among millions submitted in the U. S. and Canada. The contest was entered by more people through more retail stores than any other contest in home furnishings history, the company revealed.

Letter To Editor 100 MILLION DOLLARS

Editor, The Mountaineer: Aside from the sorrow of bereavement traffic accidents are fabulously expensive. So far this year they have drained away nearly 63
million dollars from the economy.
Before the end of 1955 the economic loss from traffic mishaps will approach, or perhaps exceed, 100 million dollars.

To enable your readers to follow this trail of lost dollars week by week it's suggested they use the formula developed by the National Safety Council. To chart North Carolina's economic loss from traffic accidents you take the number of fatalities and multiply them by the flat sum of $95,000. The result, which changes virtually from day to day, represents the true cost of carelessness at the wheel.

Yours truly,
Bill Crowell, Director
Public Relations Office
