MRS. WALTER FRANK DUNN is the former Miss Catherine Theresa Alley. She was married Saturday evening, August 27, in Johnson City, Tenn. (Photo by Clifford Maxwell Studio).

Catherine Theresa Alley Weds Walter Frank Dunn

Miss Catherine Theresa Alley, daughter of Hayes Alley of Waynesville and Mrs. Frederick C. Corn of Johnson City, Tenn., became the bride of Walter Frank Dunn, son of Mrs. Clinton C. Dunn and the late Mr. Dunn, in a candlelight ceremony in Central Baptist Church, Johnson City, Saturday, August 27, at 8 p.m. Dr. James W. Cox conducted the double ring ceremony and a program of music was presented by John Jeter, organist; Miss Margaret Hagood, violinist; and Miss Anita Roddy, vocalist. The vows were spoken before an altar banked with fern plaques and flanked by baskets of white gladioli and branched candelabra holding pink tapers. The bride was given in marriage by Homer L. Pease, close friend of the couple. She wore a gown of imported, hand-clipped Chantilly lace over nylon net and taffeta. The fitted bodice was encrusted with seed pearls and sequins and was designed with portrait neckline and long sleeves ending in points over the hands. The bouffant skirt cascaded into a chapel train with tiers of pleated nylon tulle and ruffled lace. Her finger-tip veil of French illusion was attached to a scalloped half-hat which was trimmed with sequins and seed pearls. The bride carried a hand-embroidered silk handkerchief, which had been carried by her maternal grandmother and her mother at their weddings and her bouquet was a cascade of gardenias and stephanotis centered with a white orchid. She wore a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. Miss Pauline Rowe was maid of honor. She wore a waltz-length dress of azalea pink lace fashioned with taffeta cummerbund with a bow in the back and she carried a cascade of pink gladioli and roses. Bridesmaids were Miss Millicent ombs of Knoxville, Miss Janet Easley of Spangler, Pa., Miss Virginia Aroney of Ebensburg, Pa., Miss Valdine Guinn of Erwin, Tenn., and Miss Jo Ann Dunn and Mrs. Iree Jordan, both sisters of the bridegroom, of Johnson City. Their gowns were identical to that of the maid of honor and they also carried cascade bouquets of pink gladioli and roses. Stephanie Jordan, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl and
