

Canton Man Is Married In Double Wedding

The First Presbyterian Church at Lewiston, Idaho was the scene of a double wedding Sunday, August 14, when Miss Gayle Delores Kress, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kress, became the bride of Clarence Hoyt Powell, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Powell of Canton, and Miss Allene Rhoda Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Carter, was married to Loff Alvin Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Young of Saxon, W. Va.

The brides, an aunt and her niece, who is four days older, both of Hawaii, have been lifelong companions. They are both graduates of Lewiston High School and are seniors in the nursing school at Deaconess Hospital at Spokane.

The brides were attired in identical floor length gowns of white lace over net and satin and they wore fingertip veils attached to coronets trimmed with seed pearls. Each carried a white orchid on a white Bible.

They served as maids-of-honor for each other and each was attended by three bridesmaids and a flower girl.

Mr. Powell, who recently received his discharge from the Air Force, is employed as a civilian accountant at Fairchild Air Base, Spokane where he and Mrs. Powell are making their home following a wedding trip to Lake Louise.
