

NROTC
Inauguration Set
December 10

The annual competition for high school seniors to attend college and careers as naval officers throughout the nation on December 10, the Navy announced. Application for the program is now available, and will be received by November 19. Candidates will start their careers in colleges and across the country in substantial financial assistance from the government. Final college education will be commissioned in the Navy or Marine Corps, with the United States Navy and the United States Marine Corps. Persons who qualify score will be in the pool of qualified remaining in competition. Approximately 1800 young men will be selected for appointment to the NROTC, and to the training cruises with

Community Fair
At Thickety Is Set For Saturday

The second annual Community Fair will be held at the Park Saturday. Everyone is asked to participate in this event, to make it a success. All kinds of farm products, hand work, canned goods, and anything of interest will be accepted for display. It is hoped a wide variety of exhibits will be shown.

The Wesleyan Service Guild met at the church Thursday evening with Mrs. David Burch hostess.

Mrs. John Nations was in charge of the program, with other members of the group participating.

Miss Melba Willis, Spiritual Life leader, was in charge of the devotion.

During the business plans were completed for a study course to begin the first Sunday night in October. Members of the Guild will lead the discussion for four sessions to complete the required study of six hours. The text, Five Great Spiritual Classics, will be used.

A social hour followed, and refreshments were enjoyed. Mrs. Mary Robinson, a bride of Sunday, was presented a gift by group members.

The Guild will be represented by two members at the Coaching Day the fleet, and will receive $600 annual retainer pay until commissioned. In addition to the normal college curriculum, the midshipmen will study a planned course in naval science. All tuition, fees and books will be furnished by the Navy.

HURRICANE VICTIMS FIND SHELTER—Members of the Edward Nixon family from nearby Salter Path fled from their exposed home on the beach as hurricane Ione approached and found shelter in the Municipal Building at Morehead City. They were the first evacuees to enter the shelter. The hurricane hit the North Carolina coast Monday with violent winds, high tides and torrential rain. (AP Wirephoto).

Conference at Nantahala Lodge Sunday.

George Reno of Charleston, W. Va., visited his uncle and aunt, Mr.

and Mrs. Harold Moffitt the latter part of the week. The helicopter in which he made the trip, attracted no little attention while "parked" in the field opposite the Moffitt home.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service held the regular meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Nathan Wilson.

Mrs. Wilson was in charge of the devotions, and Mrs. W. M. Williamson was program leader. Those taking part on the program were Mrs. Jim Harris and Mrs. Roy Robinson.

The president, Mrs. Sherrell Jimison, presided, and after business was discussed, tempting refreshments were served by the hostess.

Weaver Hipps has resumed his studies at N.C. State College after the summer vacation days during which time he was employed at Champion Paper and Fibre Company.
